A GOOD COMPARISON.
The Rev. William Roulutt, a well known Methodist clergyman, residing at Naples, draws the following amusing, but apt comparison between Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and a ferret.
"A ferret when placed at the entrance of a rat hole, enters the aperture, travels along the passage, seizes upon the rat, exterminates his existence and draws the animal's defunct carcass to the light. And in like manner have I found Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge to operate upon worms, those dreadful and dangerous tormentors of children. This remedy, like the ferret, enters the aperture of the mouth, travels down the gullet, hunts round the stomach and lays hold of the worms, shakes the life out of the reptiles, sweeps clean their den, and carries their carcasses clear out of the system. This at least, has been the effect of the Vermifuge upon my children."

The St. Louis Murderer Captured in New Zealand.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

A New Mexican Murders Seven People Before he is Killed. The Oregon Railway and Navigation Lease Almost Assured

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Chief of Police Crowley ... to-day ... information ... that W. H. Lennox Maxwell, ... of Arthur Preller at St. Louis ... in April ... at Auckland, New Zealand, on the arrival ... the steamer City of Sydney.

ST. LOUIS, May ... [illegible] ... New Zealand for Maxwell, the ... murderer. No ... has yet been appointed to go for Maxwell, there being some doubt as to the manner of bringing him ... There is no need for hurry, however, ... officer who goes cannot leave San Francisco before June ..., when the next Auckland steamer sails.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—The chief of police cabled the American consul at Auckland this afternoon instructing him to hold Maxwell at all hazards until an officer from Missouri arrived. He also telegraphed Secretary Bayard that an officer will leave San Francisco for Maxwell on June 6 and ... Bayard ... the British minister at Washington to see that Maxwell is not ... until the officer arrives.

[illegible]

S... FRANCISCO, May ...—Special.—Captain ... of this city ... Maxwell, murderer of Preller at St. Louis ... San Francisco ... arrest ... course pursued by Maxwell. When the murder was discovered this city, along with other cities ..., was notified of the crime and asked to look out for the murderer. Captain Lees ... the register of the Palace hotel ... discover ... which looked as if written ... stran... ... had some connection with Maxwell, though there was no similarity in the names. ... the capture of the criminal. His every movement while in this city was ... by detectives, though he went under an assumed name and never wrote his signature without disguising his handwriting, ... His departure by the City of Sydney was the most important of the discoveries ... and showed more than anything else the sagacity with which the officers traced the fugitive by his handwriting through a maze of disguises and aliases. The next steamer that will sail ... for Auckland will be the Australia, Saturday next. It would be of course impossible for St. Louis authorities to obtain the necessary papers from Washington and send officers with them here by that time. The next monthly steamer will be the Zelandia, June 6. It is supposed two officers from St. Louis will carry extradition papers for the murderer. By reason of the calculation Maxwell may be expected to arrive here on the Australian steamer by the last of July.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

Old Battles Refought with a Vengeance. General Grant Re-elected

NEW YORK, May ...—Special.—The reunion at Baltimore of the society of the Army of the Potomac was not attended as largely by members from this and other eastern cities as in other years and places, notwithstanding the efforts of the Baltimoreans to welcome them. This was owing partly to the fact that this was an experimental attempt at fraternizing with ex-confederates in ceremonies that mark reunions. The feeling among many Grand Army men is that the blue and the gray ... very well on commemorative occasions so strictly one sided.

GENERAL GRANT RE-ELECTED

BALTIMORE, May 6.—A business meeting of the Society of the Army of the Potomac was held at Ford's Grand opera house to-night. General King said he was commissioned by General Grant to say that he was greatly disappointed at not being able to preside over the deliberations of the society, but his sympathy and heart were with his old comrades. Major General Hunt assumed the chair with thanks for the cordial reception given him. The reunion in 1886 will be held at San Francisco. General Vandervoort stated that the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic would probably be held there next year and that the California legislature had appropriated $...,000 for the entertainment of the visitors, provided both organizations met at the same time. Cheap railroad fares were promised and a royal welcome guaranteed.

Nominations for officers for the ensuing year being in order, General John C. Robinson advanced on crutches. He thanked his friends for the mention of his name for the position of commander of the army of the Potomac, but would under no circumstances allow it to be used in opposition to that of the illustrious soldier now holding the position, and he moved that the secretary be authorized to cast one ballot on which was inscribed the name of General Grant. Various members seconded General Robinson's motion, and it was carried by a standing vote amid the wildest enthusiasm. The other officers were also re-elected.

A STORMY SCENE

General W. R. Brown of Washington suggested that as the R. E. Lee Camp of Richmond, Virginia, were in the immediate neighborhood it would be both generous and graceful to invite them to occupy seats in the house and make the ... amends. A motion to that effect was made and seconded, when two or three men jumped up and violently opposed such proceedings, one of them saying rebels, no matter how repentant, had no interest in the business of Union soldiers, and that their presence was an insult which he could not endure. Nearly every man in the house was instantly on his feet, trying to make himself heard, and for a while there was a scene of wild confusion, which threatened to end in personal encounters. The chairman vainly endeavored to secure order and threatened to call the police. Order was finally restored and a committee appointed to invite the ex-confederates to meet their old opponents when the business of the meeting was ended.

After adjournment the committee came in bringing with them a long string of men in grey suits. They were greeted with great applause and in return filled the house with genuine rebel yells. Ex-confederates were scattered among the blue coats and their officers were invited to the stage. Colonel McGinnis of Montana welcomed them, and Commissioner General Cook responded. Short addresses were also made by Colonel Charles Marshall, chief of General Lee's staff, and Colonel Evans of Richmond.

THE RECEPTION

A reception later in the Opera house was a brilliant success. Hundreds of ladies were present. On the stage were many men distinguished in ... In the audience were ... Lee camp of Ex-Confederates.

General ... secretary of the society, read the following telegram from General Grant:

[illegible] ... I would regard it as ... I should ... able to attend, but I accept the honor though without hope of performing the duties of the office. Wishing all members many happy reunions, I remain U. S. GRANT

A SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

A New Mexican Murders Seven People before he is Killed

SANTA FE, N. M., May 6.—A special from Fort Stanton says: Yesterday about ... A. M., at Bonito, fifteen miles from here, Martin Nelson arose from bed, and while committing a robbery shot and killed Dr. William H. Flynn, late of Boston, who was sleeping in the same room with Nelson, upstairs in the house of M. S. Maybury. The firing aroused the family, when Nelson shot and killed Maybury, his wife and two sons. A little daughter was wounded fatally. A neighbor was alarmed and came to the house, and he too was shot dead. It was supposed the murderer remained in the house and ten citizens watched it to prevent his escape, but at ... A. M. the guard was surprised to hear a shot from the rear, and Herman Black fell dead. Nelson then came down the street, firing his Winchester until he was shot dead. Nelson when sane was a good citizen. He came here four years ago from Nebraska.

The scene at the house of Maybury beggars description. The greatest excitement prevails. In every direction lay dead bodies clad in night clothes. The little girl was not dead when found, but was mortally wounded and nearly frightened to death. People in town all day yesterday were engaged in making coffins. The funeral took place this afternoon, people from the surrounding country flocking into Bonita. For some time past many robberies have been reported along the valley, including Maybury's house, which are now charged to Nelson.

RAILROAD NOTES.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL ASSOCIATION

NEW YORK, May 6.—Special.—Colburn Huntington's secretary said to an OREGONIAN representative this morning that the statement to the effect that the Transcontinental association had reduced immigrant fares from New York to the Pacific coast to $50 to meet a similar cut on the part of the Sunset route, via New Orleans, is not exactly correct, the Sunset route being in the pool and bound by it. The managers of the Sunset route, however, desire to rate between European ports and California ... as low as $50 for through tickets. To uphold higher rates would be a constant invitation to that company to join with others and dissolve the pool, hence the concession.

It is still rumored on Wall street that Huntington intends to restore the payment of $95,000 per month subsidy to the Pacific Mail. Now that order has been restored ... the latter is in a position to make it very warm for overland roads. President Houston still declares he will not accept $...,000, nor any lower figure than the former subsidy. It is believed by many well informed brokers that Huntington is only awaiting a favorable opportunity to cut loose from the Transcontinental pool. The prospective combination between the Union and Northern may hasten this.

... IN RATES TO THE PACIFIC

NEW YORK, May 6.—A cut in a certain class of passenger rates from this city to the Pacific coast is exciting considerable attention in railroad circles. When inquiry on the subject was made to-day by a reporter he was informed ... by a well known ticket broker that the New York, West Shore and Buffalo railroad was responsible for this movement. At the Erie office the general western passenger agent said that while the old emigrant rate from this city to San Francisco was ... it is ... sold in Europe in connection ... first-class tickets for about $... at ... the first of the year. This reduction was based upon ... the Missouri river and San Francisco which we ... made in order to compete with ... route by the way of New Orleans. ... and West Shore road, which had placed on sale in this city through a broker tickets that were designed to be sold only in Europe to genuine immigrants. This practice, which began some weeks ago, had compelled the roads to sell their mixed tickets at the same ruling rate of $4..., these tickets taking the place of the old immigrant tickets, except on the Pennsylvania road alone.

THE O. R. & N. LEASE ALMOST ASSURED

BOSTON, May 6.—The conference yesterday between the Union Pacific and the Northern Pacific and the Oregon Railway and Navigation representatives was of greater importance than stated in last night's dispatches. It is highly probable that another meeting will be unnecessary, and the object of the conference will be attained in a few days. The Union Pacific and the Northern Pacific people made a proposition, and the Oregon Railway and Navigation representatives submitted a counter proposition, while the matter was put into the hands of a committee of New York people for consideration. Vice President Atkins of the Union Pacific states that the consummation may be expected within three or four days. It is understood that the agreement will be ... from New York to Boston.

THE AFGHAN DISPUTE

The English Government Censured on All Sides for its Weakness

NEW YORK, May 6.—[Special.]—A special to the Times from London says: "London is simply speechless with rage this afternoon at last night's disclosures. Gladstone had few cheers save from the radical benches below the gangway. Lord Churchill's long speech was really a masterly indictment, and it is in every mouth to-day. Its indignant words are quoted on all sides, as they were cheered to the echo last night. Every one feels that such a vast contrast as that afforded by Gladstone's speech of a week ago and the statement he made last night does not exist elsewhere in the history of politics, not even in his own career, and the bitterness of wrath at him defies description. To-day we are getting the first installment of a new series of foreign jeers over English cowardice from Berlin, Paris, Dublin and even Rome, and you can imagine how they sting.

SIR PETER LUMSDEN RESIGNS

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch from Simla to Reuter's Telegram company says that Sir Peter Lumsden has resigned the position of British Afghan boundary commissioner, because of his inability to agree with the policy of the home government.

CHURCHILL PROTESTS

Lord Churchill addressing a conservative meeting to-night protested against the commission on the frontier delimitation being removed to London to be dealt with by imbeciles at the foreign office. Russia, he said, had always objected to the presence of General Sir Peter Lumsden, and now the government had gratified Russia by recalling General Lumsden. It was time for the tories to endeavor to bring about a change in the advisers of the crown by refusing supplies.

TRYING TO ...

LONDON, May 6.—The Daily News is authorized to deny that Russia has stipulated that England shall not occupy Port Hamilton. The News believes Russia has offered England positive assurance that she has no intention of taking Herat.

WAR PREPARATIONS CONTINUE

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—There is no appearance here of any abatement in the warlike preparations. The mobilizing of rifle battalions in Finland continues.

WILLING TO ARBITRATE

COPENHAGEN, May 6.—The king of Denmark has informed Russia that he is willing to act as arbitrator if he was so requested by England.

CANADA

PARTICULARS OF THE RECENT BATTLE

BATTLEFORD, May 6.—Further details of the engagement between Colonel Otter's forces and Chief Poundmaker's Indians show that the fight lasted seven hours. The Indians used muskets, war clubs, spears, bows and arrows, and every conceivable weapon of warfare. No mention is made in the dispatches of the killed and wounded being brought back, and it is judged from the hasty return march that they were left behind. Nothing but the last extremity would induce Otter to do that. No one has any doubt now that a bloody Indian war will follow. The Qu'Appelle Indians are to-day reported to have risen and left their reserve. Crowfoot, chief of the Blackfeet, is related to Poundmaker and will, it is said, join him against the whites. The Dominion government and Colonel Otter are blamed for not securing the ransom of Factor McLean and other white captives before precipitating matters.

Positive advices from Clarke's Crossing to-day say Middleton began his advance this morning. A battle is expected at Batouche to-morrow.

CHINA.

DISASTROUS COLLISION ... SHANGHAI

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The steamer City of Rio Janeiro has arrived with Hong Kong dates to April 7 and Yokohama to April 1... A collision occurred March ... in the Woo Sung river between the Chinese ferry steamer ... plying between Woo Sung and Shanghai, and the Oceanic steamship company's steamer Orestes. The Chinese steamer, which carried about 300 passengers and a crew numbering twelve, was cut in two and all but thirty-two passengers and seven of the crew are believed to have perished.

The Japanese minister at Peking has submitted terms to the Chinese government for the settlement of the troubles connected with the Corean outbreak. Japan demands the withdrawal of Chinese troops from Corea and that China henceforth refrain from interfering with Corean affairs, payment to Japan of indemnity of 800,000 taels (over a million dollars) and punishment of Chinese commanders who incited the outbreak. China has not yet replied to these conditions.

IRELAND.

IRELAND PLEASED WITH ENGLAND'S HUMILIATION

NEW YORK, May 6.—Special.—Herald Dublin special: Much jubilation is being made by the ... nationalists over the news of England's surrender to France in the Bosphore Egyptien matter, and to Russia in the ... affair. England's humiliation makes Ireland ... still clinging ... the present ... Dublin ... trees are soon to be added that of renewing the coercion and crimes act, which in its present shape shortly expires. Lord Spencer has plainly said that unless it is renewed in that shape without modification he will resign.

RATE-CUTTING RESUMED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—[Special.]—The Pacific Coast Passenger Agents' Association was generally demoralized to-day, owing to the fact that two agents had been caught in cutting rates. Late in the afternoon yesterday a "spotter" succeeded in detecting the agent of the Missouri Pacific in selling two third class tickets to Boston at a reduction of $5 on the regular rate of $...2 50. One of the agents of the eastern trunk lines was also found to have assisted in making a cut. For violation of the transcontinental pool association agreement a fine of $500 is imposed, while fines for violation of the rules of the Pacific coast associations aggregate $100, making in all $600. This morning rate cutting began early, but by the energetic rustling of Clint Jones of the Rock Island one of the culprits was soon caught. Other agents are very much discouraged and say that the association is practically good for nothing and ought to be disbanded. In the meantime cutting will go on, and should the prevailing sentiment be followed the association will go to pieces and a bitter war of rates ensue.

THE COMMON DEMOCRATS DISGUSTED

[Special.]—Announcement that Buckley, Schmidt, Mayor Bartlett et al. were about to form a high toned democratic club has caused great dissatisfaction among active members of the party. They say that Buckley, having become rich by their aid, is becoming ashamed of his old supporters, and wants an excuse to throw them over and make common cause with their ancient enemies, "the get-ted high joints," who have always claimed the offices, leaving the "low joints" to do the work. The alliance of Bartlett with Buckley is regarded with extra suspicion from the fact that the mayor has not cared to disguise in the past his contempt for the working element in the party, preferring to tie up with the respectable, independent, property owning element. This new move, combined with his signal failure to control any of the federal patronage, has caused Buckley's power to wane rapidly.

AN INTERESTING DECISION

Superior Judge Toohy to-day, in the case of Julius Kaulback, a deserter from the army, confined in the federal prison at Alcatraz, decided that state courts have no habeas corpus power over federal prisoners. He based his decision on that of the supreme court, which says judges or state courts authorized by the laws of their states to issue writs of habeas corpus have the right to issue a writ in any case where the party is alleged to be illegally confined within their limits, unless it appear that he is confined under authority of the United States government. If such fact appear upon application the writ should be refused.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION CONTINUES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—[Special.]—Statistics kept at the custom house show that in spite of the restriction act Chinese immigration goes steadily on, and by combined processes of habeas corpus, customs certificates and Chinese consulate bonds the celestial population constantly increases. Figures furnished by Surveyor Morton show that from January 1, 1885, to May 1, 2558 Chinese arrived at this port, while 147... departed in transit, leaving 108... as the net addition to Chinatown.

REDUCTION IN SUGARS

[Special.]—The American sugar refinery has issued a revised price list showing a decline of one-half cent in all white refined grades and one-quarter cent in nearly all yellow kinds. The price of golden syrup in tins has also been reduced two and one half cents per gallon by this refinery. There are no changes in other kinds.

SCHOOL FUNDS EXHAUSTED

[Special.]—Owing to the exhaustion of funds, the schools of this city must close a month earlier than usual and the teachers will not receive any salaries for the month. The expenses have run far above the $62,500 monthly provided by law.

SACRAMENTO HONORS MRS. CROCKER.

The Entire City Unites in Acknowledging her Goodness and Charity

SACRAMENTO, May 6.—[Special.]—Sacramento is performing a unique act—one without a parallel. Fortunate in enrolling among her citizens that public spirited lady, Mrs. Margaret E. Crocker, the entire city strove to-day to indicate its appreciation of her many acts of public beneficence. Factories, shops and offices are closed and business is suspended. To do honor to Margaret E. Crocker is the only order of the day. Unique in spontaneity and unanimity, the demonstration is not less unique in the delicacy by which its intended compliment is conveyed.

In view of the many acts done by her, voluntarily and without ostentation," runs an address signed by the committee on invitations and reception, of which committee Mayor John Q. Brown and sixteen other prominent citizens are members, "the people of this city, in order to manifest their esteem and gratitude, have united, as with one heart and mind, to give a free floral festival in honor of the life and generous acts of her who is the consort of our city, the lover of our homes." So a floral festival is progressing, on a scale unstinted and magnificent.

In a circular letter the deeds which it is especially sought to acknowledge are concisely set forth as follows: Margaret E. Crocker has endeared herself to the people of Sacramento and vicinity by a long life of general sociability enriched by numerous private charities. She has from time to time added many acts of public beneficence, some of which are: Addition to the city cemetery of a large tract of land, erection of an extensive and beautiful conservatory building and endowment of the Marguerite home at a cost of $130,000, and lately the presentation to the city of the E. B. Crocker art gallery with its rich contents and ample grounds, aggregating in value nearly half a million dollars, which is the crowning work of her self imposed busy life.

The whole city is in holiday attire and business is closed in honor of Margaret Crocker. It is an unparalleled demonstration.

The festival was held in the Pavilion building, the interior of which was completely hidden by contributions ranging from bouquets to immense set pieces, from all parts of the state. In the afternoon there were congratulatory exercises by 2000 school children. The formal presentation of the art gallery was made in the evening.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

AN INTERESTING EVENT IN STEAMBOATING.

SPOKANE FALLS, May 6.—[Special.]—The steamer Kootenai has made its initial trip from the little dalles to the crossing of the Canadian Pacific. The steamer started Tuesday evening, April 28, reaching Farwell at 7 o'clock P. M. May 1. Full running time, thirty hours. Most of the time on the way up was consumed searching for a channel lining over rapids and remaining tied up over night. On the return trip the steamer left Farwell at noon on Saturday, May 2, and reached the little dalles at 11 A. M. Sunday, May 3, running the distance in eleven hours. The craft was loaded up at once, and started northward Monday morning. The stage of water in the Columbia is still low. The weather is cold and snow still remains piled up on the river banks. When the river fills up the run up stream can be made on better time. The Kootenai is now to make regular trips, but it will not carry passengers or general merchandise at present, attending strictly to moving the large amount of freight intended to fill the contract of H. M. McCartney & Co. with the Canadian Pacific. There are now in the neighborhood of 1300 tons at the little dalles awaiting shipment.

THREE MEN DROWNED

SPOKANE FALLS, W. T., May 6.—[Special.]—News was received here to-day of the drowning of three men in the Columbia river Thursday, April 30th. While on its first trip from the little dalles the new steamer Kootenai was moored in the channel of the river at the foot of the Kootenai rapids, where the current was very swift. The crew were busily engaged in preparing to line the boat over the rapids and as the steamer occupied this position a row boat from Farwell containing James M. Potter of Spokane Falls, Nelse Halberg, Charles Jacobson, Nelse Olberg and a man known as Eric, four Swedes who had been at work on the Canadian Pacific railroad, attempted to run the rapids. They were repeatedly warned and urged not to attempt the foolhardy trip while the steamer occupied the channel of the river, but they would not listen to advice and started over the rapids. As was expected the water ran so swiftly that the men could not manage the craft, and it struck the steamer, was dashed to pieces and the men were precipitated into the river. Every effort was made to save the lives of the unfortunate voyagers, but Halberg, Jacobson and Eric were lost. Potter and Olberg were rescued with considerable difficulty, and taken back to Farwell by the steamer.

A GOOD COMPARISON.

The Rev William Roulalt, a well-known Methodist clergyman, residing at Naples, draws the following amusing but apt comparison between Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and a ferret.

"A ferret when placed at the entrance of a rat hole, enters the aperture, travels along the passage, seizes upon the rat, exterminates his existence and draws the animal's defunct carcass to the light. And in like manner have I found Dr. C. McLane's Vermifuge to operate upon worms, those dreadful and dangerous tormentors of children. This remedy, like the ferret, enters the aperture of the mouth, travels down the gullet, hunts round the stomach and lays hold of the worms, shakes the life out of the reptiles, sweeps clean their den, and carries their carcasses clear out of the system. This at least has been the effect of the Vermifuge upon my children."

Old Battles Refought with a Vengeance. General Grant Re-elected.

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—[Special.]—The reunion at Baltimore of the society of the Army of the Potomac is not attended as largely by members from this and other eastern cities as in other years and places, notwithstanding the efforts of the Baltimoreans to welcome them. This was owing partly to the fact that this is an experimental attempt at fraternizing with ex-confederates in ceremonies that mark reunions. The feeling among many Grand Army men is that the [illegible] and the gray would blend very well on commemorative occasions so strictly one [illegible].

GENERAL GRANT RE-ELECTED.

BALTIMORE, May 6.—A business meeting of the Society of the Army of the Potomac was held at Ford's Grand opera house to-night. General King said he was commissioned by General Grant to say that he was greatly disappointed at not being able to preside over the deliberations of the society, but his sympathy and heart were with his old comrades. Major [illegible] Hunt assumed the chair with thanks for the cordial reception given him. [illegible] committee [illegible] San Francisco [illegible] General Vandervoort stated that the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic would probably be held there next year and that the California legislature had appropriated $[illegible]000 for the entertainment of the visitors, provided [illegible] organizations [illegible] at the same time. Cheap railroad fares were promised and a royal welcome guaranteed.

Nominations for officers for the ensuing year being in order, General John C. Robinson advanced [illegible]. He thanked his friends for the mention of his name for the position of commander of the Army of the Potomac but would under no circumstances allow it to be used in opposition to that of the illustrious soldier now holding the position, and he moved that the secretary be [illegible] to cast one ballot [illegible] the name of General Grant. Various members seconded General Robinson's motion and it was carried by a standing vote, amid the wildest enthusiasm. The other officers were also re-elected.

A STORMY SCENE.

General W. H. Brown of Washington suggested that as the R. E. Lee Camp of Richmond, Virginia, were in the immediate neighborhood it would be both generous and graceful to invite them to occupy seats in the house and make their acquaintance. A motion to that effect was made and seconded, when two or three men jumped up and violently opposed such proceedings, one of them saying rebels, no matter how repentant, had no interest in the business of Union soldiers, and that their presence was an insult which he could not endure. Nearly every man in the house was instantly on his feet trying to make himself heard, and for a while there was a scene of wild confusion which threatened to end in personal encounters. The chairman vainly endeavored to secure order and threatened to call the police. Quiet was finally restored and a committee appointed to invite the ex-confederates to meet their old opponents when the business of the meeting was ended.

After adjournment the committee came in bringing with them a long string of men in grey suits. They were greeted with great applause and in return filled the house with genuine rebel yells. Ex-confederates were scattered among the blue coats and their officers were invited to the stage. Colonel McGinnis of Montana welcomed them and Commissioner General Cook responded. Short addresses were also made by Colonel Charles Marshall, chief of General Lee's staff and Colonel Evans of Richmond.

THE RECEPTION.

A reception later in the Opera house was a brilliant success. Hundreds of ladies were present. On the stage were many men distinguished in military circles. In the audience were R. E. Lee Camp of Ex-Confederates.

General King, secretary of the society, read the following letter from General Grant:

"It is [illegible] the members of the society [illegible] their partiality in [illegible] for the second time [illegible] my health promised a probability of my being at the [illegible] meeting I would regard it as [illegible] should I be able to attend, but I accept the honor though without hope of performing the duties of the office. Wishing all members many happy reunions I remain, U. S. GRANT."

A SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

A New Mexican Murders Seven People before he is Killed

SANTA FE, N. M., May [illegible].—A special from Fort Stanton says: Yesterday about [illegible] A. M. at Bonito, fifteen miles from here, Martin Nelson arose from bed and while committing a robbery shot and killed Dr. William H. Flynn, late of Boston, who was sleeping in the same room with Nelson upstairs in the house of M. S. Maybury. The firing aroused the family, when Nelson shot and killed Maybury, his wife and two sons. A little daughter was wounded fatally. A neighbor was alarmed and came to the house and he too was shot dead. It was supposed the murderer remained in the house and ten citizens watched it to prevent his escape, but at [illegible] A. M. the guard was surprised to hear a shot from the rear and Herman Black fell dead. Nelson then came down the street firing his Winchester until he was shot dead. Nelson [illegible] was a good citizen. He came here four years ago from Nebraska.

The scene at the house of Maybury beggars description. The greatest excitement prevails. In every direction lay dead bodies clad in night clothes. The little girl was not dead when found, but was mortally wounded and nearly frightened to death. People in town all day yesterday were engaged in making coffins. The funeral took place this afternoon, people from the surrounding country flocking into Bonita. For some time past many robberies have been reported along the valley, including Maybury's house, which are now charged to Nelson.

RAILROAD NOTES.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL ASSOCIATION.

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—[Special.]—Colburn Huntington's secretary said to an OREGONIAN representative this evening that the statement to the effect that the Transcontinental association had reduced immigrant fares from New York to the Pacific coast to $50 to meet a similar cut on the part of the Sunset route via New Orleans, is not exactly correct, the Sunset route being in the pool and bound by it. The managers of the Sunset route, however, desire to rate between European ports and California even as low as $50 for through tickets. To uphold higher rates would be a constant invitation to that company to join with others and dissolve the pool, hence the concession.

It is still rumored on Wall street that Huntington intends to restore the payment of $95,000 per month subsidy to the Pacific Mail. Now that order has been restored in Panama the latter is in a position to make it very warm for overland roads. President Houston still declares he will not accept $[illegible]000 nor any lower figure than the former subsidy. It is believed by many well informed brokers that Huntington is only awaiting a favorable opportunity to cut loose from the Transcontinental [illegible]. The prospects [illegible] between the Union and Northern may [illegible] this.

THE [illegible]

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—A cut in a certain class of passenger rates from this city [illegible] is exciting considerable attention in railroad circles. When inquiry on the subject was made to-day by a reporter he was informed in the office of a well known ticket broker that the New York, West Shore and Buffalo railroad was responsible for this movement. At the Erie office the general western passenger agent said that while the old emigrant rate from this city to San Francisco was [illegible] the Ontario and Western road had placed on sale in this city through brokers tickets that were designed to be sold only in Europe to genuine immigrants. This practice, which began some weeks ago, had compelled the roads to sell their fixed tickets at the same ruling rate [illegible]. These tickets taking the place of the old immigrant tickets except on the Pennsylvania road [illegible].

THE [illegible] LEASE ALMOST ASSURED.

BOSTON, May [illegible].—The conference yesterday between the Union Pacific and the Northern Pacific and the Oregon Railway and Navigation representatives is of greater importance than stated in last night's dispatches. It is highly probable that another meeting will be unnecessary and the object of the conference will be attained in a few days. The Union Pacific and the Northern Pacific people made a proposition and the Oregon Railway and Navigation representatives submitted a counter proposition, when the matter was put into the hands of a committee of New York people for consideration. Vice President Atkins of the Union Pacific states that the consummation may be expected within three or four days. It is understood that the agreement will be [illegible] from New York to Boston.

THE AFGHAN DISPUTE.

The English Government Censured on All Sides for its Weakness

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—[Special.]—A special to the Times from London says: London is simply speechless with rage this afternoon at last night's disclosures. Gladstone [illegible] cheers save from the radical benches below the gangway. Lord Churchill's long speech was really a masterly indictment and it is in every mouth to-day. Its indignant words are quoted on all sides as they were cheered to the echo last night. Every one feels that such a vast contrast as that afforded by Gladstone's speech of a week ago and the statement he made last night does not exist elsewhere in the history of politics, not even in his own career, and the bitterness of wrath at him defies description. To-day we are getting the first installment of a new series of foreign jeers over English cowardice from Berlin, Paris, Dublin and even Rome, and you can imagine how they sting.

SIR PETER LUMSDEN RESIGNS.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch from Simla to Reuter's Telegram company says that Sir Peter Lumsden has resigned the position of British Afghan boundary commissioner, because of his inability to agree with the policy of the home government.

CHURCHILL PROTESTS.

Lord Churchill, addressing a conservative meeting to-night, protested against the commission on the frontier delimitation being removed to London to be dealt with by imbeciles at the foreign office. Russia, he said, had always objected to the presence of General Sir Peter Lumsden, and now the government had gratified Russia by recalling General Lumsden. It was time for the tories to endeavor to bring about a change in the advisers of the crown by refusing supplies.

TO CONCILIATE THE PUBLIC.

LONDON, May [illegible].—The Daily News is authorized to deny that Russia has stipulated that England shall not occupy Port Hamilton. The News believes Russia has offered England positive assurance that she has no intention of taking Herat.

WAR PREPARATIONS CONTINUE.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—There is no appearance here of any abatement in the warlike preparations. The mobilizing of rifle battalions in Finland continues.

WILLING TO ARBITRATE.

COPENHAGEN, May 6.—The King of Denmark has informed Russia that he is willing to act as arbitrator if he was so requested by England.

CANADA.

PARTICULARS OF THE RECENT BATTLE.

BATTLEFORD, May 6.—Further details of the engagement between Colonel Otter's forces and Chief Poundmaker's Indians show that the fight lasted seven hours. The Indians used muskets, war clubs, spears, bows and arrows and every conceivable weapon of warfare. No mention is made in the dispatches of the killed and wounded being brought back, and it is judged from the hasty retreat made that they were left behind. Nothing but the last extremity would induce Otter to do that. No one has any doubt now that a bloody Indian war will follow. The Qu'Appelle Indians are to-day reported to have risen and left their reserve. Crowfoot, chief of the Blackfeet, is related to Poundmaker and will it is said join him against the whites. The Dominion government and Colonel Otter are blamed for not securing the ransom of Factor McLean and other white captives before precipitating matters.

Positive advices from Clarke's Crossing to-day say Middleton began his advance this morning. A battle is expected at Batouche to-morrow.

CHINA.

A DISASTROUS COLLISION NEAR SHANGHAI.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The steamer City of Rio Janeiro has arrived with Hong Kong dates to April [illegible] and Yokohama to April [illegible]. A collision occurred March 28 in the Woo Sung river between the Chinese ferry steamer Pin Yuen, plying between Woo Sung and Shanghai, and the Oceanic steamship company's steamer Orestes. The Chinese steamer, which carried about 100 passengers and a crew numbering twelve, was cut in two and all but thirty-two passengers and seven of the crew are believed to have perished.

The Japanese minister at Peking has submitted terms to the Chinese government for the settlement of the troubles connected with the Corean outbreak. Japan demands the withdrawal of Chinese troops from Corea, and that China henceforth refrain from interfering with Corean affairs, payment to Japan of indemnity of 800,000 taels (over a million dollars) and punishment of Chinese commanders who incited the outbreak. China has not yet replied to these conditions.

IRELAND.

IRELAND PLEASED WITH ENGLAND'S HUMILIATION.

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—[Special.]—The Herald's Dublin special: Much jubilation is being made by nationalists over the news of England's surrender to France in the Bosphore Egyptien matter and to Russia in the Penjdeh affair. "England's humiliation makes Ireland's revenge," said a leading barrister. To the present perplexities of Downing street are soon to be added that of renewing the coercion and crimes act, which in its present shape shortly expires. Lord Spencer has plainly said that unless it is renewed in that shape without modification, he will resign.

RATE CUTTING RESUMED.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—[Special.]—The Pacific Coast Passenger Agents' Association was generally demoralized to-day owing to the fact that two agents had been caught cutting rates. Late in the afternoon yesterday a spotter succeeded in detecting the agent of the Missouri Pacific in selling two third-class tickets to [illegible] at a reduction of $[illegible] on the regular rate of $[illegible]. One of the agents of the eastern trunk lines was also found to have assisted in making a cut. For violation of the transcontinental pool association agreement a fine of $500 is imposed, while fines for violation of the rules of the Pacific coast associations aggregate $100, making in all $600. This morning rate cutting began early, but by the energetic rustling of Clint Jones of the Rock Island, one of the culprits was soon caught. Other agents are very much discouraged and say that the association is practically good for nothing and ought to be disbanded. In the meantime cutting will go on and should the prevailing sentiment be followed the association will go to pieces and a bitter war of rates ensue.

THE COMMON DEMOCRATS DISGUSTED.

[Special.]—Announcement that Buckley, Schmidt, Mayor Bartlett et al. were about to form a high toned democratic club has caused great dissatisfaction among active members of the party. They say that Buckley, having become rich by the fraud, is becoming ashamed of his old supporters and wants an excuse to throw them over and make common cause with their ancient enemies, "the gilt edged high joints," who have always claimed the offices, leaving the low joints to do the work. The alliance of Bartlett with Buckley is regarded with extra suspicion from the fact that the mayor has not cared to disguise in the past his contempt for the working element in the party, preferring to tie up with the respectable independent property-owning element. This new move combined with his signal failure to control any of the federal patronage has caused Buckley's power to wane rapidly.

AN INTERESTING DECISION.

Superior Judge Toohy to-day in the case of Julius Kaulback, a deserter from the army confined in the federal prison at Alcatraz, decided that state courts have no habeas corpus power over federal prisoners. He based his decision on that of the supreme court, which says judges or state courts authorized by the laws of their states to issue writs of habeas corpus have the right to issue a writ in any case where the party is alleged to be illegally confined within their limits, unless it appear that he is confined under authority of the United States government. If such fact appear upon application the writ should be refused.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION CONTINUES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—[Special.]—Statistics kept at the custom house show that in spite of the restriction act Chinese immigration goes steadily on, and by combined processes of habeas corpus, customs certificates and Chinese consulate bonds the celestial population constantly increases. Figures furnished by Surveyor Morton show that from January 1, 1885, to May 1, 2558 Chinese arrived at this port, while 1475 departed in transit, leaving 108[illegible] as the net addition to Chinatown.

REDUCTION IN SUGARS.

[Special.]—The American sugar refinery has issued a revised price list showing a decline of one half cent in all white refined grades and one-quarter cent in nearly all yellow kinds. The price of golden syrup in this has also been reduced two and one half cents per gallon by this refinery. There are no changes in other kinds.

SCHOOL FUNDS EXHAUSTED.

[Special.]—Owing to the exhaustion of funds, the schools of this city must close a month earlier than usual and the teachers will not receive any salaries for the month. The expenses have run far above the $62,500 monthly provided by law.

SACRAMENTO HONORS MRS. CROCKER.

The Entire City Unites in Acknowledging her Goodness and Charity

SACRAMENTO, May 6.—[Special.]—Sacramento is performing a unique act—one without a parallel. Fortunate in enrolling among her citizens that public spirited lady Mrs. Margaret E. Crocker, the entire city strove to-day to indicate its appreciation of her many acts of public beneficence. Factories, shops and offices are closed and business is suspended. To do honor to Margaret E. Crocker is the only order of the day. Unique in spontaneity and unanimity, the demonstration is not less unique in the delicacy by which its intended compliment is conveyed.

"In view of the many acts done by her voluntarily and without ostentation," runs an address signed by the committee on invitations and reception, of which committee Mayor John Q. Brown and sixteen other prominent citizens are members, "the people of this city, in order to manifest their esteem and gratitude, have united, as with one heart and mind, to give a free floral festival in honor of the life and generous acts of her who is the consort of our city, the lover of our homes." So a floral festival is progressing on a scale unstinted and magnificent.

In a circular letter the deeds which it is especially sought to acknowledge are concisely set forth as follows: "Margaret E. Crocker has endeared herself to the people of Sacramento and vicinity by a long life of general sociability enriched by numerous private charities. She has from time to time added many acts of public beneficence, some of which are: Addition to the city cemetery of a large tract of land; erection of an extensive and beautiful conservatory building and endowment of the Marguerite home at a cost of $100,000, and lately the presentation to the city of the E. B. Crocker art gallery, with its rich contents and ample grounds, aggregating in value nearly half a million dollars, which is the crowning work of her self imposed busy life."

The whole city is in holiday attire and business is closed in honor of Margaret Crocker. It is an unparalleled demonstration.

The festival was held in the Pavilion building, the interior of which was completely hidden by contributions ranging from bouquets to immense set pieces from all parts of the state. In the afternoon there were congratulatory exercises by 2000 school children. The formal presentation of the art gallery was made in the evening.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

AN INTERESTING EVENT IN STEAMBOATING.

SPOKANE FALLS, May 6.—[Special.]—The steamer Kootenai has made its initial trip from the little dalles to the crossing of the Canadian Pacific. The steamer started Tuesday evening, April 28, reaching Farwell at 7 o'clock P. M., May 1. Full running time thirty hours. Most of the time on the way up was consumed searching for a channel, lining over rapids and remaining tied up over night. On the return trip the steamer left Farwell at noon on Saturday, May 2, and reached the little dalles at 11 A. M. Sunday, May 3, running the distance in eleven hours. The craft was loaded up at once and started northward Monday morning. The stage of water in the Columbia is still low. The weather is cold and snow still remains piled up on the river banks. When the river fills up the run up stream can be made on better time. The Kootenai is now to make regular trips, but it will not carry passengers or general merchandise at present, attending strictly to moving the large amount of freight intended to fill the contract of H. M. McCartney & Co. with the Canadian Pacific. There are now in the neighborhood of 100 tons at the little dalles awaiting shipment.

THREE MEN DROWNED.

SPOKANE FALLS, W. T., May 6.—[Special.]—News was received here to-day of the drowning of three men in the Columbia river Thursday, April 30th. While on its first trip from the little dalles the new steamer Kootenai was moored in the channel of the river at the foot of the Kootenai rapids, where the current was very swift. The crew were busily engaged in preparing to line the boat over the rapids, and as the steamer occupied this position a row boat from Farwell, containing James M. Potter of Spokane Falls, Nelse Halberg, Charles Jacobson, Nelse Olberg and a man known as Eric, four Swedes who had been at work on the Canadian Pacific railroad, attempted to run the rapids. They were repeatedly warned and urged not to attempt the foolhardy trip while the steamer occupied the channel of the river, but they would not listen to advice and started over the rapids. As was expected the water ran so swiftly that the men could not manage the craft, and it struck the steamer, was dashed to pieces and the men were precipitated into the river. Every effort was made to save the lives of the unfortunate voyagers, but Halberg, Jacobson and Eric were lost. Potter and Olberg were rescued with considerable difficulty, and taken back to Farwell by the steamer.

THE LAST HUNTINGTON LETTERS

The San Francisco Chronicle recently published three additional letters written by Mr Colton to Mr Huntington, tending to show that these railroad monopolists were dealing with the supreme court as the previous letters, published a year ago, proved that they had been dealing with members of congress. They were written at the time when the owners of the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific were striving to overturn the Thurman act by inducing the supreme court to declare it unconstitutional. It appears from this correspondence that in August, 1878, Justice Field was in San Francisco Colton was there, and on August 9 he wrote to Huntington, inclosing a bill of exchange for $100,000, and indulging in some remarks about the Thurman act. The peculiarly significant sentences of this letter were as follows

When men like Thurman and Edmunds advocate the passage of such a bill, what protection is there for property in this country?

I have had several long talks with Judge Field, and the hope of the country is in the supreme court, if the nation is to be saved from disgrace.'

Soon after this letter was written a sham suit was brought by Albert Gallatin, who pretended to oppose the Central Pacific company, but who was in reality, as the Chronicle shows, in collusion with the company. Before the trial Colton wrote again to Huntington, saying:

"Judge Field will not sit in the Gallatin case, but will reserve himself for his best effort (I have no doubt) on the final termination of the case at Washington before a full bench. I think that is wise, as then Judge Sawyer will hear the case here, and if Judge Field should take our view of the case on final argument before the supreme court it would have more weight with that court than if he had rendered a decision below in our favor in California."

The case was taken to Washington, where its real purpose was revealed to Attorney General Devens by John L. Love, a San Francisco lawyer. As a result of this exposure the case was thoroughly argued, and a decision was rendered sustaining the constitutionality of the Thurman act. Three justices dissented, one of whom was Justice Field. His opinion was regarded as the strongest presentation of the railroad company's side that could have been made.

So long as the publication of these letters was confined to the San Francisco papers Justice Field did not consider them worthy of his attention. But the New York Times copied them with suitable comments, and then the judge made an indignant denial of the charge they implied. He says he never talked to Colton about the Gallatin case, and adds in a general way "Never in all my twenty-eight years of judicial experience has a man dared to approach me in regard to a case which had come or would be likely to come before me for trial, nor have I ever conversed with any person in regard to the merits of such case."

The Chronicle says: "The justice's friends will probably claim that his denial settles the matter, but the people who have read the Colton-Huntington letters will be disposed to inquire why Colton, in a confidential communication to Huntington, stated that he had several long talks with Field if no such conversations really occurred. They will also marvel greatly that Colton should have been able to state that Field was going to be on the railroad side and make a brilliant effort."

THE NEW JURY LAW

At the recent session of the legislature Senator P P Prim, of Jackson county, offered a bill relating to the drawing and attendance of juries in the state circuit courts, which became a law. It provides that grand juries shall be drawn prior to the meeting of court by the clerk and sheriff, to be in attendance at the first day of the term, and that trial juries shall be called on the fourth day of the term, changing the practice which has required the attendance of the whole panel from the first day and which also has required that the grand jury be made up from the members of the panel. Judge Taylor of the Fifth district has held this new law to be of no effect, because it violates the state constitution, which provides that grand juries shall be selected from jurors in attendance upon the courts, and he has ordered his juries drawn under the old law, which is in perfect accord with the constitution. None other of the judges has passed upon the new law whose authority hinges upon a constitutional provision authorizing the legislature to "abolish or modify" the grand jury system. It is a question if changing the manner of drawing constitutes "modification," the organization, duty and methods of the body remaining the same. Judge Taylor thinks not, but it is by no means certain that the other judges will see the matter in the same way.

Judge Prim proposed the new law simply as a measure of economy. The first two or three days of a court term are usually taken up with preliminary business, pending which there is nothing for trial jurors to do. The presence of a full panel costs somewhat upwards of a hundred dollars per day, and this expense Judge Prim proposed to avoid. We hope that the legal status of the new law will be held defective. Its economy is its only good feature. On the other hand, it puts into the hands of clerks and sheriffs the power, absolute, of making up grand juries. We have seen how this sort of power can be abused, and believe that no trifling economy can compensate for its extension.

The Omaha reduction works operate entirely on ores from districts varying from 500 to 1600 miles away in Colorado and Idaho. Last year the value of their output was $13,751,185. And this money was taken from ores that would never have yielded a dollar to the mine owners had there been no means of reducing them. In thus furnishing means of reduction the production of ores has been stimulated and mines developed that would otherwise have remained undisturbed by pick or powder. There is a vast scope of mineral bearing country within 500 miles of Portland that would receive a like stimulus by the establishment of reduction works here, and doubtless much of the Idaho product that now goes to Omaha could be turned in this direction.

It was doubtless inadvertence which led the Standard yesterday to charge Cleveland as a "false prophet" in saying to a young man who called at the White house that he "would not live to see the end of democratic rule in this country." An allusion to the "g. o. p." in the same paragraph was hardly respectful. We cannot think that the fires of party devotion have ceased to burn in our neighbor Anthony's heart. And yet it may be that, wearied with the "apparent slowness with which appointments are made," he has turned democratic mugwump.

The New York Sun, which has a grudge against public officers who have a real enthusiasm for their work and do not care for partisan politics, has been pursuing General Eaton, commissioner of education, with its malignant idiocy. But the president has instructed General Eaton's friends that he need not fear being removed. This is in response to a very large number of urgent requests from prominent educators all over the country that he might be retained.

It is an interesting fact in connection with Mr. McCartney's enterprise on the upper Columbia river, above the Little Dalles, that Captain Pingstone, who was master of the boat which last navigated that stretch of water forty years ago, is also master of the new boat.

Judge Thurman has described one of the worst effects of the boss system in politics, in saying that the kind recently established in Ohio permits no democrat to grow more than three feet high.

In Ohio Cleveland suits the republicans better than the Democrats. The Cincinnati Enquirer has opened its guns on the administration.

MORE OF THE BROOKLYN HORROR

The Treasury Count Shows a Deficit of Two Cents—A New Postmaster Appointed at Chicago—Washington Notes

NEW YORK May 6—The trial of Richard Short for attempted assassination of Captain Phelan in O'Donavan Rossa's office was continued to-day. Phelan was recalled and asked some unimportant questions and prosecution rested. Defense then opened with an address by their counsel. The latter declared Phelan came to this city to wreak his vengeance on Rossa because Rossa had published something in the United Irishman censuring Phelan.

Counsel for Short declared that Phelan went to Rossa's office to attack him and while there acted boisterously and threatened Rossa. Short spoke to Phelan, but the latter attacked him and Short stabbed him with a dagger in protecting himself. The dagger counsel maintained, was one of the ornaments of Rossa's office. Walter F Elliott testified to hearing Phelan threaten to lay out both Rossa and Professor Mezzeroff dynamiters. John F Kearney liquor store keeper denied that he had written to Phelan to come to this city.

This afternoon, when the jury trying Richard Short for stabbing Captain Phelan retired the lobbies of the court house remained thronged with people. The jury having made known that an agreement had been reached were brought into court and asked what their verdict was. "Not guilty," answered the foreman. Short's friends set up a tremendous shout, but were quickly quieted by officers. The judge frowned in indignation and amazement at the verdict and said: "Gentlemen I am astonished at your verdict. You are discharged from all further service on this panel."

"I move for the discharge of the prisoner," said Councillor Brook. "Granted," said the court in a manner that seemed to show that his honor was anxious to get rid of such extraordinary business.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

THE LATE GENERAL McDOWELL

NEW YORK May 6—[Special]—The obituaries of General McDowell occupy a large space in the morning journals but they are critical even when most friendly. His military failures being set down to sudden and great promotion for which he was not prepared. Lack of tact and magnetism among subordinates, and unfortunate circumstances were strongly and persistently arrayed against him. His forbearance and dignity under misfortune are everywhere admitted and his scholarly accomplishments are set rather above his qualities as a military leader. The Times says: "A curious fact concerning him was that he was credited with being addicted to the use of liquor through a nervous trouble which caused his face to flush and his speech to grow thick when excited. Another characteristic was his inability to remember faces and names with rather an intense military manner toward his officers. This condition was much diminished in latter years. His heart was always warm and open to private soldiers and he was constantly devising means to lighten their lots."

WHY WHEAT STAYS UP

NEW YORK May 6—[Special]—An OREGONIAN reporter who visited the produce exchange this morning a prominent wheat broker expresses great surprise that the peaceful news from England did not cause more of a panic in the New York grain market. The total drop since the beginning of the week when it was conceded that England had backed down was not over 3 cents per bushel. The market has since been buoyed up wonderfully by news of the decrease of another million bushels in the visible supply. The movement of wheat from primary points in the interior has been very small. There are few investors who went in anticipating war who now remain in the market. A representative of an English house who has just returned from the other side says it was the belief of many conservative English business men that war was inevitable and he proposed holding all the wheat he had and get as much more as he could at the present peaceful prices.

THE BROOKLYN HORROR

BROOKLYN May 6—The work of digging out the bodies of the victims of yesterday's fire commenced this morning. The extreme heat of yesterday prevented any systematic search. The ruins are surrounded by thousands of people some gathered merely from curiosity while others had a sad interest in watching work in the ruins. After two hours' work what remains of another body was found and has been identified as that of Edward Butler. Up to 12 o'clock to-day none of the bodies recovered have been fully identified, although one of them is believed to be that of Daniel Loury engineer of the burned building. The other two bodies will probably never be fully identified. Up to noon to-day nine persons have been reported as missing.

At 1:30 there were four bodies found and at 5 o'clock workmen took out two more. This made nine discovered during the day. All were horribly burned.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK

NEW YORK, May 6—[Special]—The suit of A A Cohen against Winslow Lanier & Co for alleged fraud in selling him West Shore bonds which they knew to be of less value than he paid is again up. Cohen alleges that he was induced to invest by representations that Leland Stanford had subscribed for $500,000 at par of the bonds and would give business to the West Shore. These representations he says, were false. The mortgage he has found does not cover terminal facilities at Weehawken and this city and Stanford's subscription was not in absolute good faith but was a cover for other persons. He was induced by defendants to withhold his bonds from the market, they selling in the mean time $1,000,000 of their own bonds at good prices. He asks the court to set aside the contract by which he became a member of the syndicate for the purchase of bonds and to decree repayment to him of $175,000 which he paid defendants.

WHERE ARE THE RASCALS?

NEW YORK, May 6—[Special]—The Tribune points to the last monthly debt statement as a triumphant refutation of democratic slanders regarding the management of finances by the republicans. Manning's statements, comparing dollar for dollar and cent for cent, with those of his predecessors using the very same items differing only in arrangement, prove those assertions regarding an enormous surplus which Hendricks and Randall declared to be $300,000,000 concealed under crooked and fraudulent figures, to be infamous falsehoods. Republican civil service reform also convicts the democratic party of untruth every hour of Cleveland's administration. If the old officials were rascals who should be made to go, why are there so few found who can be removed for cause? Nearly 100,000 republicans still retain office, because under the civil service rules no sufficient pretext for their removal can be trumped up against them.

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION

NEW YORK, May 6—When Dr Barker left General Grant's house this afternoon where he had been on a visit he said the cancerous lump on the tongue was not progressing so fast, because the general's system had become stronger. He thought that the cancer might run along for several months, but there could be but one conclusion.

[Special]—General Grant has made public a pointed letter wherein he declares that Adam Badeau is not the authority of the former's forthcoming book. No person but himself had or will have any hand in its composition.

NEW CUNARD STEAMER

NEW YORK May 6—[Special]. The new Cunarder Etruria which arrived yesterday is described as sumptuously fitted up. She is 520 feet long and built on what Captain Pim calls the gespipe model. She can make twenty miles an hour and on her way across covered 448 and 449 miles in two days. The builders assert that she will cross the ocean in six days and seven hours three hours less than the lowest record.

THE STRIKE AT DENVER

DENVER May 6—Nothing of importance has developed in the strike of Denver and Rio Grande shop employes to-day, except that new men are being hired as rapidly as possible to take the places of strikers and that freight trains are beginning to move. Passenger trains have not been interfered with. Other than this the situation is unchanged.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS

THE TREASURY COUNT ENDED

WASHINGTON May 6—Treasurer Jordan says the treasury count is practically over and everything is found most satisfactory. The three silver dollars which escaped from a broken package in the silver vault have been found so the only discrepancy is two cents missing from a $5 package of pennies in the cash room. Yesterday a heavy square box wrapped in red tape and securely found was found in an out of the way nook of the vault. The key was mislaid so a locksmith opened the box and it was found to contain a bottle of diamonds a bottle of pearls a bottle of ottar of roses and a lump of gold. One of the old employes identified the articles as presents to President [illegible] from the [illegible] government and which had been stored in the treasury pending the passage of an act by congress authorizing their acceptance. Congress failed to legislate on the subject and the articles were [illegible]

A [illegible] informs the navy department that everything is quiet on the isthmus [illegible] says the Colon will sail from Aspinwall for New York to-morrow and will carry [illegible] marines sent to the isthmus [illegible]

It is understood Joseph Blackburn [illegible] of Senator Blackburn of Kentucky was to-day appointed collector of internal revenue of the Ashland [illegible] Ky district vice Mr Stoll. Mr Blackburn's commission has not been issued yet.

A RUMOR DENIED

WASHINGTON May 6—The state department has not received any protest from the Austrian government concerning the appointment of Minister Keiley to Vienna. The cabled rumor that objections would be made against him because his wife is a Jewess finds no credence in administration circles. This government recognizes no difference between Jews or [illegible] It is also remarked that Mrs Keiley is not a Jewess except by parentage as she abjured her religious faith when she married a Catholic.

The Austrian minister to this country said to an Associated Press reporter to-night that he had received no communication from the home government concerning Minister Keiley.

CHICAGO'S NEW POSTMASTER

WASHINGTON May 6—The president has appointed S Corning Judd postmaster at Chicago vice Frank W Palmer suspended.

WASHINGTON May 6—S Corning Judd who was to-day appointed postmaster at Chicago is an old citizen of Chicago and a prominent member of the Episcopal church. He is about 55 years old, a lawyer by profession and was applicant for the office of solicitor general of the United States. He has always been identified with the democratic party and is at present member of the democratic national committee from Illinois. He has been a member of the legislature of his state and was a member of the state constitutional convention.

THE LAST HUNTINGTON LETTERS.

The San Francisco Chronicle recently published three additional letters written by Mr. Colton to Mr. Huntington, tending to show that these railroad monopolists were dealing with the supreme court as the previous letters, published a year ago, proved that they had been dealing with members of congress. They were written at the time when the owners of the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific were striving to overturn the Thurman act by inducing the supreme court to declare it unconstitutional. It appears from this correspondence that in August, 1878, Justice Field was in San Francisco. Colton was there, and on August 9 he wrote to Huntington, inclosing a bill of exchange for $100,000, and indulging in some remarks about the Thurman act. The peculiarly significant sentences of this letter were as follows:

"When men like Thurman and Edmunds advocate the passage of such a bill, what protection is there for property in this country?"

"I have had several long talks with Judge Field, and the hope of the country is in the supreme court, if the nation is to be saved from disgrace."

Soon after this letter was written a sham suit was brought by Albert Gallatin, who pretended to oppose the Central Pacific company, but who was in reality, as the Chronicle shows, in collusion with the company. Before the trial Colton wrote again to Huntington, saying:

"Judge Field will not sit in the Gallatin case, but will reserve himself for his best effort (I have no doubt) on the final termination of the case at Washington before a full bench. I think that is wise, as then Judge Sawyer will hear the case here, and if Judge Field should take our view of the case on final argument before the supreme court it would have more weight with that court than if he had rendered a decision below in our favor in California."

The case was taken to Washington, where its real purpose was revealed to Attorney General Devens by John L. Love, a San Francisco lawyer. As a result of this exposure the case was thoroughly argued, and a decision was rendered sustaining the constitutionality of the Thurman act. Three justices dissented, one of whom was Justice Field. His opinion was regarded as the strongest presentation of the railroad company's side that could have been made.

So long as the publication of these letters was confined to the San Francisco papers Justice Field did not consider them worthy of his attention. But the New York Times copied them with suitable comments, and then the judge made an indignant denial of the charge they implied. He says he never talked to Colton about the Gallatin case, and adds in a general way: "Never in all my twenty-eight years of judicial experience has a man dared to approach me in regard to a case which had come or would be likely to come before me for trial, nor have I ever conversed with any person in regard to the merits of such case."

The Chronicle says: "The justice's friends will probably claim that his denial settles the matter, but the people who have read the Colton-Huntington letters will be disposed to inquire why Colton, in a confidential communication to Huntington, stated that he had several long talks with Field if no such conversations really occurred. They will also marvel greatly that Colton should have been able to state that Field was going to be on the railroad side and make a brilliant effort."

THE NEW JURY LAW.

At the recent session of the legislature Senator P. P. Prim, of Jackson county, offered a bill relating to the drawing and attendance of juries in the state circuit courts, which became a law. It provides that grand juries shall be drawn prior to the meeting of court by the clerk and sheriff, to be in attendance at the first day of the term, and that trial juries shall be called on the fourth day of the term, changing the practice which has required the attendance of the whole panel from the first day and which also has required that the grand jury be made up from the members of the panel. Judge Taylor of the Fifth district has held this new law to be of no effect, because it violates the state constitution, which provides that grand juries shall be selected from jurors in attendance upon the courts, and he has ordered his juries drawn under the old law, which is in perfect accord with the constitution. None other of the judges has passed upon the new law whose authority hinges upon a constitutional provision authorizing the legislature to "abolish or modify" the grand jury system. It is a question if changing the manner of drawing constitutes "modification," the organization, duty and methods of the body remaining the same. Judge Taylor thinks not, but it is by no means certain that the other judges will see the matter in the same way.

Judge Prim proposed the new law simply as a measure of economy. The first two or three days of a court term are usually taken up with preliminary business, pending which there is nothing for trial jurors to do. The presence of a full panel costs somewhat upwards of a hundred dollars per day, and this expense Judge Prim proposed to avoid. We hope that the legal status of the new law will be held defective. Its economy is its only good feature. On the other hand, it puts into the hands of clerks and sheriffs the power, absolute, of making up grand juries. We have seen how this sort of power can be abused, and believe that no trifling economy can compensate for its extension.

The Omaha reduction works operate entirely on ores from districts varying from 500 to 1000 miles away in Colorado and Idaho. Last year the value of their output was $13,751,185. And this money was taken from ores that would never have yielded a dollar to the mine owners had there been no means of reducing them. In thus furnishing means of reduction the production of ores has been stimulated and mines developed that would otherwise have remained undisturbed by pick or powder. There is a vast scope of mineral bearing country within 500 miles of Portland that would receive a like stimulus by the establishment of reduction works here, and doubtless much of the Idaho product that now goes to Omaha could be turned in this direction.

It was doubtless inadvertence which led the Standard yesterday to charge Cleveland as a "false prophet" in saying to a young man who called at the White house that he "would not live to see the end of democratic rule in this country." An allusion to the "g. o. p." in the same paragraph was hardly respectful. We cannot think that the fires of party devotion have ceased to burn in our neighbor Anthony's heart. And yet it may be that, wearied with the "apparent slowness with which appointments are made," he has turned demperatic mugwump.

The New York Sun, which has a grudge against public officers who have a real enthusiasm for their work and do not care for partisan politics, has been pursuing General Eaton, commissioner of education, with its malignant idiocy. But the president has instructed General Eaton's friends that he need not fear being removed. This is in response to a very large number of urgent requests from prominent educators all over the country that he might be retained.

It is an interesting fact in connection with Mr. McCartney's enterprise on the upper Columbia river, above the Little Dalles, that Captain Pingstone, who was master of the boat which last navigated that stretch of water forty years ago, is also master of the new boat.

Judge Thurman has described one of the worst effects of the boss system in politics, in saying that the kind recently established in Ohio permits no democrat to grow more than three feet high.

In Ohio Cleveland suits the republicans better than the Democrats. The Cincinnati Enquirer has opened its guns on the administration.

GENERAL NEWS.

Short Acquitted, to the Surprise of Everybody.

MORE OF THE BROOKLYN HORROR.

The Treasury Count Shows a Deficit of Two Cents—A New Postmaster Appointed at Chicago—Washington Notes.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The trial of Richard Short for attempted assassination of Captain Phelan in O'Donovan Rossa's office was continued to-day. Phelan was recalled and asked some unimportant questions, and prosecution rested. Defense then opened with an address by their counsel. The latter declared Phelan came to this city to wreak his vengeance on Rossa, because Rossa had published something in the United Irishman censuring Phelan.

Counsel for Short declared that Phelan went to Rossa's office to attack him, and while there acted boisterously and threatened Rossa. Short spoke to Phelan, but the latter attacked him and Short stabbed him with a dagger in protecting himself. The dagger, counsel maintained, was one of the ornaments of Rossa's office. Walter J. Elliott testified to hearing Phelan threaten to lay out both Rossa and Professor Mezzeroff, dynamiters. John F. Kearney, liquor store keeper, denied that he had written to Phelan to come to this city.

This afternoon, when the jury trying Richard Short for stabbing Captain Phelan retired, the lobbies of the court house remained thronged with people. The jury having made known that an agreement had been reached, were brought into court and asked what their verdict was. "Not guilty," answered the foreman. Short's friends set up a tremendous shout, but were quickly quieted by officers. The judge frowned in indignation and amazement at the verdict and said: "Gentlemen, I am astonished at your verdict. You are discharged from all farther service on this panel." "I move for the discharge of the prisoner," said Councillor Brook. "Granted," said the court, in a manner that seemed to show that his honor was anxious to get rid of such extraordinary business.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

THE LATE GENERAL M'DOWELL.

NEW YORK, May 6.—[Special.]—The obituaries of General McDowell occupy a large space in the morning journals, but they are critical, even when most friendly, his military failures being set down to sudden and great promotion, for which he was not prepared. Lack of personal magnetism among subordinates, and unfortunate circumstances, were strongly and persistently arrayed against him. His forbearance and dignity under misfortune are everywhere admitted, and his scholarly accomplishments are set rather above his qualities as a military leader. The Times says: "A curious fact concerning him was that he was credited with being addicted to the use of liquor, through a nervous trouble which caused his face to flush and his speech to grow thick when excited. Another characteristic was his inability to remember faces and names, with rather an intense military manner toward his officers. This condition was much diminished in latter years. His heart was always warm and open to private soldiers, and he was constantly devising means to lighten their lots."

WHY WHEAT STAYS UP.

NEW YORK, May 6.—[Special.]—To an OREGONIAN reporter, who visited the produce exchange this morning, a prominent wheat broker expresses great surprise that the peaceful news from England did not cause more of a panic in the New York grain market. The total drop since the beginning of the week, when it was conceded that England had backed down, was not over 2 cents per bushel. The market has since been buoyed up wonderfully by news of the decrease of another million bushels in the visible supply. The movement of wheat from primary points in the interior has been very small. There are few investors who went in, anticipating war, who now remain in the market. A representative of an English house, who has just returned from the other side, says it was the belief of many conservative English business men that war was inevitable, and he proposed holding all the wheat he had and get as much more as he could at the present peaceful prices.

THE BROOKLYN HORROR.

BROOKLYN, May 6.—The work of digging out the bodies of the victims of yesterday's fire commenced this morning. The extreme heat of yesterday prevented any systematic search. The ruins are surrounded by thousands of people, some gathered merely from curiosity, while others had a sad interest in watching work in the ruins. After two hours' work what remains of another body was found, and has been identified as that of Edward Butler. Up to 12 o'clock to-day, none of the bodies recovered have been fully identified, although one of them is believed to be that of Daniel Lowry, engineer of the burned building. The other two bodies will probably never be fully identified. Up to noon to-day nine persons have been reported as missing.

At 3:30 there were four bodies found and at 5 o'clock workmen took out two more. This made nine discovered during the day. All were horribly burned.

WANTS HIS MONEY BACK.

NEW YORK, May 6.—[Special.]—The suit of A. A. Cohen against Winslow, Lanier & Co., for alleged betrayal of faith in selling him West Shore bonds, which they knew to be of less value than he paid, is again up. Cohen alleges that he was induced to invest by representations that Leland Stanford had subscribed for $500,000 at par of the bonds, and would give business to the West Shore. These representations, he says, were false. The mortgage, he has found, does not cover terminal facilities at Weehawken and this city, and Stanford's subscription was not in absolute good faith, but was a cover for other persons. He was induced by defendants to withhold his bonds from the market, they selling in the mean time $1,000,000 of their own bonds, at good prices. He asks the court to set aside the contract by which he became a member of the syndicate for the purchase of bonds, and to decree repayment to him of $175,000 which he paid defendants.

WHERE ARE THE RASCALS?

NEW YORK, May 6.—[Special.]—The Tribune points to the last monthly debt statement as a triumphant refutation of democratic slanders regarding the management of finances by the republicans. Manning's statements, comparing dollar for dollar and cent for cent, with those of his predecessors, using the very same items, differing only in arrangement, prove those assertions regarding an enormous surplus, which Hendricks and Randall declared to be $200,000,000, concealed under crooked and fraudulent figures, to be infamous falsehoods. Republican civil service reform also convicts the democratic party of untruth every hour of Cleveland's administration. If the old officials were rascals who should be made to go, why are there so few found who can be removed for cause? Nearly 100,000 republicans still retain office, because, under the civil service rules, no sufficient pretext for their removal can be trumped up against them.

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION.

NEW YORK, May 6.—When Dr. Barker left General Grant's house this afternoon, where he had been on a visit, he said the cancerous lump on the tongue was not progressing so fast, because the general's system had become stronger. He thought that the cancer might run along for several months, but there could be but one conclusion.

[Special.]—General Grant has made public a pointed letter, wherein he declares that Adam Badeau is not the authority of the former's forthcoming book. No person but himself had or will have any hand in its composition.

NEW CUNARD STEAMER.

NEW YORK, May 6.—[Special.]—The new Cunarder Etruria, which arrived yesterday, is described as sumptuously fitted up. She is 520 feet long, and built on what Captain Pim calls the gaspipe model. She can make twenty miles an hour, and on her way across covered 448 and 449 miles in two days. The builders assert that she will cross the ocean in six days and seven hours, three hours less than the lowest record.

THE STRIKE AT DENVER.

DENVER, May 6.—Nothing of importance has developed in the strike of Denver and Rio Grande shop employes to-day, except that new men are being hired as rapidly as possible to take the places of strikers, and that freight trains are beginning to move. Passenger trains have not been interfered with. Other than this the situation is unchanged.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

THE TREASURY COUNT ENDED.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Treasurer Jordan says the treasury count is practically over and everything is found most satisfactory. The three silver dollars which escaped from a broken package in the silver vault have been found, so the only discrepancy is two cents missing from a $5 package of pennies in the cash room. Yesterday a heavy square box, wrapped in red tape and securely bound was found in an out of the way nook of the vault. The key was mislaid, so a locksmith opened the box, and it was found to contain a bottle of diamonds, a bottle of pearls, a bottle of ottar of roses and a lump of gold. One of the old employes identified the articles as presents to President Monroe about the year 1825 from the Japanese government and which had been stored in the treasury pending the passage of an act by congress authorizing their acceptance. Congress failed to legislate on the subject and the articles were deposited in the treasury where they have remained ever since.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—George J. Vest, son of Senator Vest, has been detailed by Secretary Bayard as consular clerk at Liverpool.

It was stated at the post office department to-day that Postmaster Palmer of Chicago was removed for "offensive partisanship." The postmaster general said Palmer was an active worker in the recent campaign, and one of those republicans whose continuation in office was not deemed advisable by the administration.

Admiral Jouett informs the navy department that everything is quiet on the isthmus of Panama. He says the Colon will sail from Aspinwall for New York to-morrow, and will carry one-half of the marines sent to the isthmus some weeks ago.

It is understood Joseph Blackburn, brother of Senator Blackburn of Kentucky, was to-day appointed collector of internal revenue of the Ashland, Ky., district vice McLeod. Mr. Blackburn's commission has not been issued yet.

A RUMOR DENIED.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The state department has not received any protest from the Austrian government concerning the appointment of Minister Keiley to Vienna. The cabled rumor that objections would be made against him because his wife is a Jewess finds no credence in administration circles. This government recognizes no difference between Jew or Gentile. It is also remarked that Mrs. Keiley is not a Jewess, except by parentage, as she abjured her religious faith when she married a Catholic.

The Austrian minister to this country said to an Associated Press reporter to-night that he had received no communication from the home government concerning Minister Keiley.

CHICAGO'S NEW POSTMASTER.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The president has appointed S. Corning Judd postmaster at Chicago, vice Frank W. Palmer, suspended.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—S. Corning Judd, who was to-day appointed postmaster at Chicago, is an old citizen of Chicago and a prominent member of the Episcopal church. He is about 55 years of age, a lawyer by profession, and was applicant for the office of solicitor general of the United States. He has always been identified with the democratic party, and is at present member of the democratic national committee from Illinois. He has been member of the legislature of his state, and was a member of the state constitutional convention.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

DOUBLY FINED —M[illegible] Mooney [illegible] hard luck partly through [illegible] and partly through ignorance of the [illegible] of the great state of Oregon. A few days ago he assaulted Francis Johnson and was fined $10 [illegible] yesterday by Justice Bu[rkhar]dt. Mooney claims that Johnson assaulted him with dangerous weapons last Monday [illegible] a hammer and hatchet which [illegible] as evidence of the dangerous character of the [illegible] But he seemed [illegible] presenting the charges [illegible] several times demanded the return of the [illegible] with a refusal [illegible] had been convicted of a [illegible] guilty was hand[ed] [illegible] He went to jail for twelve days.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER. —[illegible] the weather [illegible] In the evening [illegible] light shower but there was no rain south of Roseburg up to that hour. [illegible] Dalles [illegible] Walla Walla [illegible] conditions [illegible]

MORTGAGE TAX SUITS. —Suits were commenced in the U. S. circuit court yesterday by the American Freehold Land Mortgage Company of London and the New England Mortgage Security Company of [illegible] county [illegible] against the sheriffs of [illegible] counties in this state, with the [illegible] of testing the validity of the mortgage tax law. The sheriffs included in these suits are [illegible] W Knight, Clackamas; [illegible] Washington [illegible]. The suits are similar to that commenced a few days since by the Dundee Mortgage and Trust Investment Company, and have been set for hearing on the same day.

COMING THIS WAY. —The matchless scenery of the Columbia river is day by day becoming better known through published descriptions and the [illegible] encomiums of travelers who have visited this [illegible] Even prominent [illegible] have come to look with favor on what nature presents north [illegible] and the small [illegible] have decided to see the show themselves. Yesterday the steamer [illegible] brought [illegible] passengers destined to points east over the Northern [illegible] All of them had been residents of the east [illegible] preferred to revisit their homes via the [illegible] to see how it compared with the Central and the Southern. The tourist travel from California east via Portland promises to be huge throughout the summer.

CHINESE [illegible]. —[illegible] police court presented a [illegible] appearance yesterday [illegible] looking Chinaman who had been arrested on Twelfth street near Main about 3:30 in the morning by policemen Austin and Hark[leroa]d. Austin espied him coming out of Geo Bedbury's cellar and gave chase. The fellow ran like a deer and Austin fired four shots after him. Harkleroad came to Austin's support and fired two shots and they finally [illegible] the rascal, who fought like a [illegible]. He had a lot of butter, eggs, soap, etc., with him which were stolen from Mr. Bedbury. There is no doubt that this is the heathen who has been robbing cellars for a long time, and his capture is a fortunate affair. His examination was continued till to-day.

REPORTS OF ROAD VIEWERS. —The county court yesterday heard the reading for the first time of viewers in the following proposed three roads: From Mt. Zion road to connect with the Marquam road; from the Powell valley road to the southeast corner of section [illegible] T 1 S, R 4 E; from the south east corner of section 2, T 1 S, R 4 E to the north west corner of the N [illegible] 8 5, T 1 S, R 1 E. It would be much easier to designate these roads by name but as the men who petition for them cannot agree on a name they will have to go without for the present. The court clerk tried the plan of creating names, but gave it up as a hopeless job.

INCORPORATIONS. —Yesterday articles were filed with the county clerk incorporating the Farmer and Dairyman publishing company. Incorporators, A. Paffenberger, [illegible] Paulsen and Edward [illegible]; capital stock $5000. The San Juan Manufacturing company [illegible] of this city has filed articles [illegible] Objects: to acquire and dispose of fish and fish products, and purchase [illegible] factor[ies] [illegible] and other fish products. Capital stock $1 000.

FIRST PAPER FROM LACAMAS. —Tuesday afternoon the great mill of the Columbia River paper company at LaCamas, W. T., began to turn out white paper in a most satisfactory manner. Everything worked to a nicety. The mill employs forty three men and from this time on they will endeavor to supply much of the paper used up in this section. A sample of some of the first that came through the machine, manufactured from the pulp of the cottonwood tree, has been received at this office. It is strong and uniform, with an even texture and good surface.

OPINION DIVIDED. —The gist of the discussion relative to the new law relating to the selection of grand jurors is this. The constitution of Oregon provides: Grand jurors shall be drawn from jurors in attendance on court. The new law says: Grand jurors shall be drawn from the jury list, and in case of non attendance of persons selected, the sheriff shall fill the vacancies from the body of the county not from the jury list. Now the question is does this conflict, and upon the question legal opinion is divided.

SHORT LINE EXCURSION. —There is little doubt that Captain J W Gilman and W C Powers, who are now organizing an eastern excursion over the Short Line, will have a very large as well as select party. These gentlemen thoroughly understand the excursion business, and have succeeded in obtaining exceptionally liberal terms from the Short Line people, which will enable them to see that nothing is overlooked that will contribute to the passengers' comfort.

AFTER INSURANCE MONEY. —G. H. & J. C. Shambrook, formerly druggists at Oakland, Douglas county, have also begun suits in the United States court against the [illegible] and Home Insurance Company for $2000 and against the Western for $1600, the amount of policies on their stock which burned last winter. Payment is refused on the ground that there were misrepresentations in the applications for insurance.

DELEGATES TO I. O. O. F. GRAND LODGE. —Samaritan Lodge, No. 2, last night elected First Grands John A. Honeyman, Almon Smith, Martin Oswald, Horace Smith, Wm. Bird and D. E. Buchanan, and C. R. Hoffman representatives to the coming session of Grand Lodge of Oregon I. O. O. F. They were instructed to vote against the proposition to change the term of subordinate officers from six to six months.

COLUMBIA COUNTY COURT. —John Catlin went down to St. Helens yesterday to attend court, but as the court had not arrived when he got there he returned home. Judge Layton was expected up on the Astoria boat. There are forty cases on the civil calendar for this term of the circuit court for Columbia county. The Clonlinger case will probably be removed to Washington or Clatsop county for trial.

ORCHESTRAL UNION. —As usual there will be no reserved seats at the concert given by this society to-morrow evening at New Market theater. This plan assures a punctual attendance at the opening of the performance. [illegible] Tickets 50 cents, gallery [illegible] Shanhan's [illegible].

DEMANDS RESTORATION OF HIS BUGGY. —[illegible] filed a [illegible] in the state circuit court yesterday against D. [illegible] demanding the possession of a buggy which he claims that [illegible] unlawfully and [illegible] the property of the plaintiff [illegible] wants its value in money which he places at $75.

CHALLENGE TO A RIFLE MATCH. —Ed Long of Salem issues a challenge to F. W. Moore of this [illegible] rifle match for $100 a side, best score in [illegible] shots, 200 yards off hand, target counting [illegible] Mr. Long desires [illegible] May 10, or there [illegible]

COLT TRIP. —The steamer Columbia crossed in [illegible] yesterday morning, reached Astoria at 5.30 [illegible] and left [illegible] at 2.30 P. M., just [illegible] her best trip made [illegible]. The [illegible] was smooth and pleasant [illegible] of the passengers were at all sick. The [illegible] crossed out at 1 P. M.

LIQUOR LICENSES. —Yesterday the county court [illegible] licenses for the sale of liquor at retail to the following persons: Alexander Frazer, Fulton [illegible], one year; Jones, Wilhelm & Co., [illegible] six months; Robert Roedlew[illegible], one year.

A BLACKMAILER CAUGHT.

Ex Policeman O. H. Cambridge Arrested for Levying $100 from Emil Weber. He Walks with his Eyes open into a Trap

[illegible] O. H. Cambridge, a former member of the [illegible] police department, lodged complaints in Justice Du[illegible] court against Emil Weber and others charging them with [illegible]. All the [illegible] [illegible] of the grand [illegible] Last Monday Cambridge went and informed Weber [illegible] that he would withdraw [illegible] Weber told Starr that he was [illegible] provided he could [illegible] if [illegible] Cambridge would [illegible] Burkhardt [illegible] at 1 o'clock in the [illegible] Starr went [illegible]

Two witnesses were secreted in the office and [illegible] at the [illegible] time Cambridge made his appearance. Weber [illegible] opened negotiations by saying that [illegible] the severe criticism on the English [illegible] by the law of London [illegible] drawing charges had advanced, and he now demanded $100. Weber tried to jew him down but he was stubborn. In order to draw him completely out, Weber argued that Cambridge would not be able to have the grand jury [illegible] but the expected [illegible] witness failed to appear [illegible] would return [illegible] Cambridge having nominated himself in the [illegible] of witnesses [illegible] would hand him the [illegible] money at [illegible] in the evening at the same office.

Mr. Starr then consulted District Attorney Gearin, telling him all the circumstances, and Mr. Gearin advised the plan necessary to secure all the evidence possible. At [illegible] last night Cambridge was [illegible] at another witness was secreted and Policeman Nash arrived very soon after and took station just outside the door in the hallway. Weber demanded a receipt for the money, on the ground that he wanted something by which he could force Cambridge to keep up his end of the [illegible]. The [illegible] and said: "You're trying to set up a job on me." [illegible] that the man who paid the money was as [illegible] as deep as the one who received it. So the [illegible] signed the following receipt:

PORTLAND, OR., May 6, 1885.

Received of Emil Weber one hundred dollars in full [illegible] of all indebtedness for which I agree not [illegible] any further charges against him.

O. H. CAMBRIDGE.

Weber handed Cambridge $100 in gold, which he put in his pocket, bade his benefactors good night, and as he stepped outside Policeman Nash placed him under arrest and hustled him to the city jail. He was locked up in the big cell together with the vags and the drunks and there [illegible] rest [illegible] evening. Answering the inquiries of a reporter he gave about the same story as printed above, and added that it was a set up job. He is dead right. It was a set up job and he swallowed the bait and now has the hook fast in his jaw. Whether the rod and line of the law lands him in the penitentiary remains to be seen.

DID A SETTLEMENT SETTLE?

Adair Bros. of Astoria Sue W. T. Coleman for $4000 on an Old Claim.

The case of Adair Bros. vs. W. T. Coleman came up in the U. S. circuit court yesterday for hearing on a demurrer to the complaint. It seems that in 1881 Coleman bought 6000 cases of salmon of Adair Bros. at their cannery in Astoria. The fish was shipped by direction of Coleman and went to Liverpool, England, to the care of Rogers Meyer & Co. On the [illegible] of October in that year Coleman received a dispatch stating that about 50 per cent of the fish was bad. He immediately forwarded the dispatch to Adair Bros. and instructed his agent at Astoria, Mr. Brackett, to ask the Adairs to assign their property to him as security for the loss amounting to about $10,000, and in case they would not do so he was to attach the property. Adair Bros. conveyed their cannery and other property to Coleman as security. Afterward Coleman received a dispatch stating that the fish were not so bad as at first thought. He sent this dispatch to the Adairs also. In the spring of 1882 the Adairs wanted their cannery back as the fishing season was at [illegible] and sought a settlement with Coleman. He furnished them with an itemized account of losses and expenses amounting to a little over $4000, which they paid and took their property back.

Since then they brought a suit in the state circuit court at Astoria to recover the money paid Coleman, on the ground that he took advantage of them and deceived them. The suit was removed [illegible] Coleman. The grounds of the demurrer to the bill are that if the plaintiffs are entitled to recover anything they have a plain and adequate remedy at law, and therefore cannot properly bring a suit in chancery, and that they are not entitled to recover at all as there was a settlement by consent of both parties at the solicitation of the Adairs, each party being equally advised of the facts in the matter. The demurrer was argued by C. W. Fulton for the plaintiffs and Judge Kelly for the defendant, and the subject taken under advisement.

FOR THE BLOOD
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Combining IRON with PURE VEGETABLE TONICS, quickly and completely CLEANSES and ENRICHES THE BLOOD. Quickens the action of the Liver and Kidneys. Clears the complexion, makes the skin smooth. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—ALL OTHER IRON MEDICINES DO. Physicians and Druggists everywhere recommend it.

DR. N. S. RUGGLES, of Marion, Mass., says: "I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as a valuable tonic for enriching the blood, and removing all dyspeptic symptoms. It does not hurt the teeth."

DR. R. M. DELZELL, Reynolds, Ind., says: "I have prescribed Brown's Iron Bitters in cases of anæmia and blood diseases, also when a tonic was needed, and it has proved thoroughly satisfactory."

MR. WM. BYRNS, 26 St. Mary St., New Orleans, La., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me in a case of blood poisoning, and I heartily commend it to those needing a purifier."

The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

REPORTS OF ROAD VIEWERS—The county court yesterday heard the reading for the first time of viewers in the following proposed three roads. From Mt Zion road to connect with the Marquam road; from the Powell valley road to the southeast corner of section 16 T 1 S, R 4 E from the south east corner of section 2, T 1 S, R 1 E to the north west corner of the N E ¼, S 5, T 1 S, R 1 E. It would be much easier to designate these roads by name but as the men who petition for them cannot agree on a name they will have to go without for the present. The court clerk tried the plan of creating names but gave it up as a hopeless job

FIRST PAPER FROM LACAMAS.—Tuesday afternoon the great mill of the Columbia River paper company at LaCamas, W T began to turn out white paper in a most satisfactory manner. Everything worked to a nicety. The mill employs forty three men and from this time on they will endeavor to supply much of the paper used up in this section. A sample of some of the first that came through the machine, manufactured from the pulp of the cottonwood tree, has been received at this office. It is strong and uniform, with an even texture and good surface

OPINION DIVIDED.—The gist of the discussion relative to the new law relating to the selection of grand jurors is this. The constitution of Oregon provides Grand jurors shall be drawn from jurors in attendance on court. The new law says Grand jurors shall be drawn from the jury list, and in case of non attendance of persons selected, the sheriff shall fill the vacancies from the body of the county not from the jury list. Now the question is do these conflict, and upon the question legal opinion is divided

SHORT LINE EXCURSION.—There is little doubt that Captain J W Gilman and W C Powers, who are now organizing an eastern excursion over the Short Line will have a very large as well as select party. These gentlemen thoroughly understand the excursion business and have succeeded in obtaining exceptionally liberal terms from the Short Line people which will enable them to see that nothing is overlooked that will contribute to the passengers comfort

Ex Policeman O H Cambridge Arrested for Extorting $100 from Emil Weber He Walks with his Eyes open into a Trap

Some time ago O H Cambridge, formerly a member of the Portland police department, lodged complaints in Justice Davis' court against Emil Weber and others charging them with gambling. All the defendants waived examination and gave bonds to await the action of the grand jury. Last Monday Cambridge sent a man named Burkhart to Weber with the proposition that he would withdraw the charge against the payment of $50. Weber told Burkhart that the offer was reasonable and he would accept provided he could satisfy himself that Cambridge would ... matters ... Cambridge ... himself ... witnesses ... Weber paid him $5 ... would hand him the balance at 8 o'clock in the evening at the same office

Mr Starr then consulted District Attorney ... informing him of the circumstances and Mr Caton advised the attorney to secure all the evidence possible. At 8 o'clock last night Cambridge was on hand ... another witness was secreted and Policeman Nash arrived very soon after and took station just outside the door in the hallway. Weber demanded a receipt for the money on the ground that he wanted something by which he could force Cambridge to keep up his end of the bargain. The ex policeman began to tumble and said ... trying to set up ... on me. Weber quieted his suspicions by the statement that the man who paid the money was ... just as ... who received it. So the blackmailer signed the following receipt

DID A SETTLEMENT SETTLE?

Adair Bros of Astoria Sue W T Coleman for $4000 on an Old Claim.

The case of Adair vs. W T Coleman came up in the U S circuit court yesterday for hearing on a demurrer to the complaint. It seems that in 1881 Coleman bought 5000 cases of salmon of Adair Bros at their cannery in Astoria. The fish was shipped by direction of Coleman and went to Liverpool England to the care of Rogers Meyer & Co. On the 17th October in that year Coleman received a dispatch stating that about 50 per cent of the fish was bad. He immediately forwarded the dispatch to Adair Bros. and instructed his agent at Astoria, Mr Brackett to ask the Adairs to assign their property to him as security for the loss, amounting to about $15,000, and in case they would not do so he was to attach the property. Adair Bros conveyed their cannery and other property to Coleman as security. Afterward Coleman received a dispatch stating that the fish were not so bad as at first thought. He sent this dispatch to the Adairs also. In the spring of 1882 the Adairs wanted their cannery back as the fishing season was about to commence and sought a settlement with Coleman. He furnished them with an itemized account of losses and expenses amounting to a little over $4000 which they paid and took their property back.

Since then they brought a suit in the state circuit court at Astoria to recover the money paid Coleman, on the ground that he took advantage of them and deceived them. The suit was removed here by Coleman. The grounds of the demurrer to the bill are that if the plaintiffs are entitled to recover anything they have a plain and adequate remedy at law and therefore cannot properly bring a suit in chancery and that they are not entitled to recover at all as there was a settlement by consent of both parties at the solicitation of the Adairs each party being equally advised of the facts in the matter. The demurrer was argued by C W Fulton for the plaintiffs and Judge Kelly for the defendant and the subject taken under advisement

CHIEF PARRISH ENDORSED

COUNCIL CHAMBER
PORTLAND Ore May 6 1885

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Portland: Gentlemen: Your committee on health and police have heard with surprise and regret the unfounded reports which have been circulated to the effect that a change is contemplated in the office of chief of police of the city of Portland and we take this means of certifying to the ability efficiency and general satisfaction with which the present incumbent of that office has performed his duties; therefore we deem it to be advisable to report to your honorable body that we are averse to any change in the office of chief of police and we are particularly induced to make this report from the fact that the efficiency of such a large body as the police force of the city of Portland is a great measure dependent upon the authority of the chief of police which can only be most potent when it is known that his tenure of office is such ... this subordinates. It is health alone that lights the countenance and brings back fresh tints to the faded cheek. If anything on earth will do this it is Mrs Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which has already brought health to multitudes with whom all other means had failed.

It is estimated that aliens own 21,000 000 acres of American soil. The owner of the soil should be in sport with the country and a part of it

FOR THE BLOOD
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Combining IRON with PURE VEGETABLE TONICS, quickly and completely CLEANSES and ENRICHES THE BLOOD. Quickens the action of the Liver and Kidneys. Clears the complexion, makes the skin smooth. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—ALL OTHER IRON MEDICINES DO. Physicians and Druggists everywhere recommend it.

DR. N S RUGGLES of Marion, Mass , says: "I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters as a valuable tonic for enriching the blood, and removing all dyspeptic symptoms. It does not hurt the teeth."

DR. R M DELZELL, Reynolds, Ind , says: "I have prescribed Brown's Iron Bitters in cases of anaemia and blood diseases, also when a tonic was needed, and it has proved thoroughly satisfactory."

MR. WM BYRNE 26 St. Mary St., New Orleans La., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me in a case of blood poisoning and I heartily commend it to those needing a purifier."

The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins etc given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c stamp.

WHEAT—Foreign markets again lower and weak but closing with a rather improved feeling. American markets opened better and are generally higher. Locally the feeling is that no marked change will soon come. More sellers are in the market, few of them being disposed to accept proffered prices. As a valley shipping extreme $1 35 is quoted. Milling parcels might do better.

OATS—One lot of choice feed now here is held for [illegible]c. Sales have not exceeded 36c and the market is hardly so firm.

POTATOES—Almost nothing doing, shipments by the Oregon being only 802 sacks, and these on consignment. Values are as last quoted.

PROVISIONS—Holders of meat are more anxious to realize and extremes are had only in a small way. Warm weather increases the risk of holding and the outlook is wholly without improvement. Small business done in eastern. Quote jobbing values: City cured hams 11@12c, bacon, 9@10c, shoulders 6@7c, country cured, generally [illegible]c lower; eastern hams 13@15c, bacon, 10@11c, lard rules easy except for choice packages that are firmly held; quote choice eastern tins 10½@11c, choice pails local 10½@11c, kegs and large tins, local [illegible]

DRIED FRUIT—Apples and pears in large stock and slow sale, concessions being frequent; plums and prunes in light stock and firm. Quote jobbing values: Sun-cured apples and pears 4@5c, factory do, 5@8c, prunes 8@10c, plums, 8@10c, peaches, 12½@13c, raisins $2@2 25 per full box as to quality.

CHICKENS—Stocks heavy and market again weaker. Quote $3 50@4 50 as to quality.

EGGS—Steady at 12@12½c.

BUTTER—Very weak, common to poor being too plentiful and hard to work off.

HIDES, SKINS, ETC.—The market has ruled steady and in fair business, desirable sorts finding quick sale. Tallow weak at 4½@5c. Quote wet salted hides 6½@8c, dry selected 14@15c. Furs and skins quoted: Dark beaver $1 37½@1 75, valley summer deerskins 20@25c, valley winter 15@20c, eastern Oregon summer deerskins 15@20c, do winter 12½@15c, elkskins 8c per lb. The following sell by the skin: Black bear $1@8, brown do, 50c@$5, dark fisher $2 50@5, pale do 50c@$1, silver fox $5@[illegible], cross do $2@5, red do 75c@$1 50, lynx 37½@50c, prime dark marten 2[illegible]@75c, dark mink 10@40c, land otter $[illegible] 50@5 50, wolf 37½@50c, wolverine 50c@1 50.

ALBANY NOTES

ALBANY, May 6.

[illegible] Henry [illegible] of Coos Bay is in the city.

Mr [illegible] has been visiting friends at Corvallis.

Mrs O N Denny is in the city, the guest of Mrs Wm Ralston.

F A Swope, of the firm of [illegible] & [illegible], Portland, is in the city.

Miss Cors[illegible] is quite [illegible] at the residence of Mrs Spink.

A B Paxton, Albany's [illegible], has returned from an extended trip to the New Orleans exposition.

Last Saturday Best & Althouse shipped thirty more of their fanning mills and six large separators to California.

Friday evening, May 8, the drama "East Lynne" will be produced at Crawford's opera house, for the benefit of the Mechanics' band.

John [illegible], [illegible] year-old son of Rufus Thompson, of Benton county, died last Monday of brain fever and was buried in the country near this city yesterday.

Mr Wm Cauhorn, of this county, returned last week from the New Orleans exposition. Mrs Cauhorn stopped in California, where she will visit for some time.

Mr Fr Millner and wife, of Flint, Michigan, are in the city, guests of A B Woodin, and wife. Mr Millner has come to Oregon with a view of investing in timber land.

W B Scott returned from Portland last evening. While there he purchased his stock of goods, etc, and next week will open in his new quarters opposite the Revere house.

Mr Jason Wheeler and son Frank and family have returned from eastern Oregon. Mr Wheeler reports that seventy-five head or one half his band of horses perished in the snow last winter.

Chief-of-police Parrish and wife, of Portland, were in the city yesterday and left on the noon train for Portland. The bride has many friends here who unite in wishing them a long life of happiness.

Yesterday C H Stewart had new potatoes for dinner which were planted on the [illegible] of March. They are the Clarks No 1 variety, and their coming to maturity in seven weeks show them to be our earliest potato.

Marshal Burkhart arrested a boy last Monday for assaulting a Chinaman. The evidence, however, went to prove that the latter was the aggressor, and he was accordingly fined $5 and costs and the boy was discharged.

Last Saturday the water was shut off from the canal to make a few repairs, and about a dozen large salmon trout were left in the waste race of Monteith's mill. They were discovered by Mr Chiswold and others, and before they escaped five were captured.

The fire companies have elected the following delegates to the state firemen's association at Astoria: Albany Engine Co No 1, T J Cline, C W Watts, H Parker; Linn Engine Co No [illegible], [illegible] Weatherford and G [illegible] Foster; Rescue H & L Co, No 1, F P Nutting and O H Irvine.

Arrangements have been made whereby the Albany firemen who attend the tournament at Astoria can make the through trip in one day, leaving here on the morning express and making connection at Portland with the fast steamer Telephone, arriving at Astoria at [illegible] o'clock in the evening. Round trip from here will be $6 35.

Last Thursday evening about 9 o'clock, while the members of Laurel lodge No 7, K of P, were busy with the usual routine of business, the O G reported that there were visitors at the outer door who desired admittance, but who were without the password. They could not be admitted, so the lodge took a recess for three hours to enjoy one of the most pleasant of evenings, as the intruders proved to be about forty ladies, wives and daughters of the members—who came with a splendid collation of ice cream, cakes, etc.

FOREST GROVE ITEMS

FOREST GROVE, May 6.

Wild strawberries are more plentiful this season than usual.

The M E Sunday school will give a short concert exercise on the first Sunday in each month.

J M Garrison is just able to be out again after a six weeks siege with inflammatory rheumatism.

The fruit crop is a promising one. Plums, cherries, pears and apples will all be had in abundance.

The popping of the merry shotgun is heard late and early. The woods are alive with wild pigeons.

Miller Bros have connected their office in the city with their grist mill at the depot by telegraph.

W D Hoxter has just started from Yakima with a band of three hundred horses for Cheyenne. They will be driven over the trail.

Mrs M J Hoxter will start east in a few weeks. She will be accompanied by her daughter Laura, who is now teaching in Wiltman college.

J Q Boss is erecting quite a substantial building to be used as a hardware, tin and grocery store. It will be ready for occupancy in about four weeks.

There is little doing in the way of trade in agricultural machinery. S Hughes, who always does a rushing business in this line, says there is now nothing doing and no prospect. But little new machinery will be bought this year at best.

Quite an amount of fishing has been done with only average luck. It is rather too soon for the fly. Those who fish are mostly those who do so for the fish solely, as there can't be much of a charm in fishing for trout where one goes down after them with bait. Those who have the elastic bamboo haven't uncased it yet, and won't for a month. With such weather there will be good fly fishing by June 1.

INDIAN SCHOOL NOTES.

Superintendent [illegible] that there will [illegible] twenty-six students from this school in June [illegible] that is, there are twenty-six who have been attending school [illegible] the [illegible] time prescribed by the government [illegible] has faithfully [illegible] and obligation toward them [illegible] all they can do is to return to their homes and families and enter upon the actual and responsible duties of life. It is to be hoped that this will practically demonstrate the wisdom of the nation's policy in securing to them their five years of training.

The advanced class of the Indian training school will give a musical concert on Wednesday evening, the 13th inst. The concert will be repeated at Reed's opera house, Salem, on Friday evening, the 15th. The exercises will consist of solos, duets, quartettes and choruses, interspersed with piano, violin and band music. This will be the last public exercise given by the school here, and without doubt it will be the best. The rest of the students, except those of the primary grade, will go to Salem in the course of three weeks. The younger ones will remain here perhaps till fall.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

[illegible] NEWSPAPERS [illegible] RUSSELL [illegible] AFGHANISTAN

LONDON, May 6.—The [illegible] this morning complains of the reticence and ambiguity of the statements of the government in regard to the Afghan question. It severely criticises the action of the government in recalling Sir Peter Lumsden, as the frontier question will be all settled before he can possibly arrive in London, and that, therefore, any information he may have will be worthless so far as negotiations with Russia in London are concerned. The [illegible] also says that a change of purpose of the ameer of Afghanistan has placed matters in a different position, and that it is time to make him understand that he must strongly garrison Herat, or at least allow the English to superintend the fortification of the place. Even if peace is temporarily secured, it would be madness to waste the time thus gained, which at best can be but small.

The [illegible], in an editorial, says: "The recall of Lumsden completes the picture of English humility."

NOTES FROM SUAKIM.

SUAKIM, May [illegible]—Lord Wolseley is slightly indisposed. It is believed here that Osman Digna is again collecting an army, but owing to scarcity of food and disease, and he cannot become sufficiently formidable to call for a British expedition against him. [illegible] Arabs ask English protection against Osman and almost all the other tribes are willing to submit if the English will promise to remain in the country and protect them from the vengeance of Osman Digna.

ANOTHER OBJECTION TO KEILEY.

LONDON, May 6.—An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Vienna states that Baron Von Schaeffer, Austrian minister at Washington, has been instructed by his government to object to the appointment of Keiley as United States minister to Austria. It is supposed that the fact that Keiley's wife being a Jewess is the reason for the objection, although nothing definite in regard to the cause of this action of the Austrian government is known.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Secretary Whitney and John Roach have agreed that the Dolphin shall have another trial trip before her final acceptance by the government. The trial will take place in the Sound and will be a six hour run.

UTAH.

[illegible] OF THE UTAH [illegible] PROTEST.

SALT LAKE, May 6.—Members of the Utah commission [illegible] Associated Press reporter as to the effect of the late Mormon declaration and protest to the authorities at Washington and the nation, say: It will do the Mormon cause more harm than good. First, because it is a bold unqualified declaration in favor of the dogma of polygamy; second, the leaders who formulated the document have induced the whole Mormon people apparently to endorse the declaration. While no doubt there are many dissenters, yet they have all allowed themselves to be placed by the leaders in an attitude unanimously endorsing polygamy. This, of course, will be used by outsiders as an argument for more stringent legislation.

ANÆMIA

[illegible] the most virulent form of blood poisoning. Less [illegible] fatal, but not less certain, is [illegible] vitiation of the blood of which the first symptoms are Pimples, Sties, Boils and Cutaneous Eruptions. When the taint of Scrofula gives warning of its presence by such indications, no time should be lost in using AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, the only perfect and reliable medicine for the purification of the blood.

SCROFULA

WHEAT—Foreign markets again lower and weak but closing with a rather improved feeling. American markets opened better and are generally higher. Locally the feeling is that no marked change will soon come. More sellers are in the market, few of them being disposed to accept proffered prices. As a valley shipping extreme $[illegible] is quoted. Milling parcels might do better.

OATS—One lot of choice feed now here is held for 37½c. Sales have not exceeded 36 and the market is hardly so firm.

POTATOES—Almost nothing doing; shipments by the Oregon being only 802 sacks and these on consignment. Values are as last quoted.

PROVISIONS—Holders of meat are more anxious to realize and extremes are had only in a small way. Warm weather increases the risk of holding and the outlook is wholly without improvement. Small business done in eastern. Quote jobbing values: City cured hams 11@12c, bacon, 9@10c, shoulders 6@7c, country cured, generally ½@1c lower, eastern hams 13@15c, bacon, 10@11c. Lard rules easy except for choice packages that are firmly held; quote choice eastern tins, 10¼@11c, choice pails, local 10½@11c, kegs and large tins local 8@9c.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples and pears in large stock and slow sale, concessions being frequent; plums and prunes in light stock and firm. Quote jobbing values: Sun-cured apples and pears 4@5c, factory do, 5@8c, prunes, 8@10c, plums 8@10c, peaches 12½@13c, raisins $2@2 25 per full box, as to quality.

CHICKENS—Stocks heavy and market again weaker. Quote $3 50@4 50 as to quality.

EGGS—Steady at 12@12½c.

BUTTER—Very weak, common to poor being too plentiful and hard to work off.

HIDES, SKINS, ETC.—The market has ruled steady and in fair business, desirable sorts finding quick sale. Tallow weak at 4@5c. Quote wet salted hides 5½@6c, dry selected 14@15c. Furs and skins quoted: Dark beaver $1 37½@1 75, valley summer deerskins 20@25c, valley winter 15@20c, eastern Oregon summer deerskins 15@20c, do winter 12½@15c, elkskins 8c per lb. The following sell by the skin: Black bear $1@6, brown do, 50c@$5; dark fisher $2 50@5, pale do 50c@$1, silver fox $5@25, cross do $2@5, red do 75c@$1 50, lynx 37½@50c, prime dark marten 25@75c, dark mink 10@40c, land otter $1 50@5 50, wolf 37½@50c, wolverine 50c@1 50.

THE EAST SIDE

WILKIE ARRESTED.

Mr Wilkie, the husband of the woman [illegible] last Monday morning by an explosion in the cook stove and who is suspected of being the author of the diabolical deed, was arrested the following day at [illegible] by Constable Dilding on a warrant issued from Justice Simpson's court. He was arraigned yesterday and pleaded not guilty and the examination was continued until to-day in order to procure important witnesses. Mrs Durbin, a [illegible] next door to Mrs Wilkie, and others positively identified him as the man seen prowling about the premises where the family were at [illegible] Sunday evening. It appears that Mrs Wilkie was compelled to separate from him [illegible] on account of his vile conduct. Some fragments of a substance supposed to have caused the explosion were found in the fire [illegible] analyzed [illegible] determine its nature [illegible] suspicion is strengthened by the fact that Constable Dilding discovered a keg of blasting powder at prisoner's residence. Prisoner was remanded to the county jail in default of $[illegible] bonds.

[illegible] ARRESTED.

At the quarterly business meeting of the Y M C A last evening the reports of Secretary Wells showed the association to be in [illegible] prosperous condition and that the attendance at the rooms was [illegible] for the quarter and 600 for the last month.

The individual who grew so boisterous through his anxiety for work that it was necessary for the peace of the city to put him under control for the time being, was accommodated to-day by being ordered to work on the streets. He received a five days sentence.

ALBANY NOTES

ALBANY, May 6.

Merchant Henry [illegible] of Coos Bay is in the city.

Mr James Writesman [illegible] at Corvallis.

Mrs O N Denny is in the city, the guest of Mr Wm Ralston.

F A Swope of the firm of Swope & Taylor, Portland, is in the city.

Miss Corson, a music teacher, is quite ill at the residence of Mrs Spink.

A B Paxton, Albany's artist, has returned from an extended trip to the New Orleans exposition.

Last Saturday, Best & Althouse shipped fifty more of their fanning mills and six large separators to California.

Friday evening May 1, the drama "[illegible]" will be produced at Crawford's opera house for the benefit of the Mechanics' band.

John, 15 year old son of Rufus Thompson of Benton county died last Monday of brain fever and was buried in the country near this city yesterday.

Mr Wm Cathorn of this county returned last week from the New Orleans exposition. Mrs Cathorn stopped in California, where she will visit for some time.

Mr Ez Millner and wife of Flint, Michigan, are in the city guests of A B Woodin and wife. Mr Millner has come to Oregon with a view of investing in timber land.

W B Scott returned from Portland last evening. While there he purchased his stock of guns, etc, and next week will open in his new quarters opposite the Revere house.

Mr Jason Wheeler and son Frank, and family have returned from eastern Oregon. Mr Wheeler reports that seventy five head, or one half his band of horses, perished in the snow last winter.

Chief of police Parrish and wife of Portland were in the city yesterday and left on the noon train for Portland. The bride has many friends here who unite in wishing them a long life of happiness.

Yesterday C H Stewart had new potatoes for dinner which were planted on the 19th of March. They are the Clarks No 1 variety, and their coming to maturity in seven weeks show them to be our earliest potato.

Marshal Burkhart arrested a boy last Monday for assaulting a Chinaman. The evidence, however, went to prove that the latter was the aggressor and he was accordingly fined $[illegible] and costs and the boy was discharged.

Last Saturday the water was shut off from the canal to make a few repairs, and about a dozen large salmon trout were left in the waste race of Monteith's mill. They were discovered by Mr Chiswold and others and before they escaped five were captured.

The fire companies have elected the following delegates to the state firemen's association at Astoria: Albany Engine Co No 1, F J Cline, C W Watts, H Parker; Linn Engine Co No 2, J K Weatherford and G F Foster; Rescue H & L Co No 1, F P Nutting and O H Irvine.

Arrangements have been made whereby the Albany firemen who attend the tournament at Astoria can make the through trip in one day, leaving here on the morning express and making connection at Portland with the fast steamer Telephone, arriving at Astoria at 5 o'clock in the evening. Round trip from here will be $6 35.

Last Thursday evening about 9 o'clock, while the members of Laurel lodge, No 7, K of P, were busy with the usual routine of business, the O G reported that there were visitors at the outer door who desired admittance but who were without the pass word. They could not be admitted, so the lodge took a recess for three hours to enjoy one of the most pleasant of evenings, as the intruders proved to be about forty ladies—wives and daughters of the members—who came with a splendid collation of ice cream, cakes, etc.

FOREST GROVE ITEMS.

FOREST GROVE, May 6.

Wild strawberries are more plentiful this season than usual.

The M E Sunday school will give a short concert exercise on the first Sunday in each month.

J M Garrison is just able to be out again after a six weeks siege with inflammatory rheumatism.

The fruit crop is a promising one. Plums, cherries, pears and apples will all be had in abundance.

The popping of the merry shotgun is heard late and early. The woods are alive with wild pigeons.

Miller Bros have connected their office in the city with their grist mill at the depot by telegraph.

W B Hoxter has just started from Yakima with a band of three hundred horses for Cheyenne. They will be driven over the trail.

Mrs M E Hoxter will start east in a few weeks. She will be accompanied by her daughter Laura, who is now teaching in Whitman college.

J G Boss is erecting quite a substantial building to be used as a hardware, tin and grocery store. It will be ready for occupancy in about four weeks.

There is little doing in the way of trade in agricultural machinery. S Hughes, who always does a rushing business in this line, says there is now nothing doing and no prospect. But little new machinery will be bought this year at best.

Quite an amount of fishing has been done with only average luck. It is rather too soon for the fly. Those who fish are mostly those who do so for the fish solely, as there can't be much of a charm in fishing for trout where one goes down after them with bait. Those who have the elastic bamboo haven't uncased it yet and won't for a month. With [illegible] there will be good fly fishing by June 1.

INDIAN SCHOOL NOTES.

Superintendent Coburn informs us that there will be twenty six graduates from the school in June. [illegible] there are twenty six who have been attending school five years, the limit of time prescribed by the government. Now, that the government has faithfully discharged its obligation toward them, all they can do is to return to their homes and families and enter upon the actual and responsible duties of life. It is to be hoped that this will practically demonstrate the wisdom of the nation's policy in securing to them their five years of training.

The advanced class of the Indian training school will give a musical concert on Wednesday evening, the 13th inst. The concert will be repeated at Reed's opera house, Salem, on Friday evening the 15th. The exercises will consist of solos, duets, quartettes and choruses, interspersed with piano, violin and band music. This will be the last public [illegible] given by the school here, and without doubt it will be the best. The rest of the students except those of the primary grade will go to Salem in the course of three weeks. The younger ones will remain here perhaps till fall.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

[illegible]

LONDON, May 6.—The Times this morning complains of the incompleteness and obscurity of the statements of the government in regard to the Afghan question. It severely criticizes the action of the government in calling Sir Peter Lumsden, as the frontier question will be all settled before he can possibly arrive in London, and that, therefore, any information he may have will be worthless so far as negotiations with Russia in London are concerned. The Times also says that a change of purpose of the ameer of Afghanistan has placed matters in a different position, and that it is time to make him understand that he must strongly garrison Herat, or at least allow the English to superintend the fortification of the place. Even if peace is temporarily secured, it would be madness to waste the time thus gained, which at best can be but small.

The Standard, in an editorial, says "The recall of Lumsden completes the picture of English humility."

NOTES FROM SUAKIM.

SUAKIM, May 6.—Lord Wolseley is slightly indisposed. It is believed here that Osman Digna is again collecting an army, but owing to scarcity of food he cannot keep the men long and he cannot become sufficiently formidable to call for a British expedition against him. Tokar Arabs ask English protection against Osman and almost all the other tribes are willing to submit if the English will promise to remain in the country and protect them from the vengeance of Osman Digna.

AUSTRIA'S OBJECTION TO KEILY.

LONDON, May 6.—An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Vienna states that Baron Von Schaeffer, Austrian minister at Washington, has been instructed by his government to object to the appointment of Keily as United States minister to Austria. It is supposed that the fact that Keily's wife being a Jewess is the reason for the objection, although nothing definite in regard to the cause of this action of the Austrian government is known.

ST PETERSBURG, May 6.—The czar has issued a decree creating two trans-Caspian reserve battalions.

TO HAVE ANOTHER TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Secretary Whitney and John Roach have agreed that the Dolphin shall have another trial trip before her final acceptance by the government. The trial will take place in the sound and will be a six hour run.

UTAH.

[illegible]

SALT LAKE, May 6.—Members of the Utah commission being interviewed by the Associated Press reporter as to the effect of the late Mormon declaration and protest to the authorities at Washington, [illegible] say: "It will do the Mormons much more harm than good. First, because it is a bold and public declaration in favor of the doctrine of polygamy; second, the leaders who formulated the document have placed the whole Mormon people apparently behind the declaration. While no doubt there are many dissenters, yet they have allowed themselves to be placed by the leaders in an attitude unanimously endorsing polygamy. This of course will be used by outsiders as an argument for more stringent legislation."

This BELT or Regenerator is made expressly for the cure of derangements of the generative organs. There is no mistake about this instrument; the continuous stream of ELECTRICITY permeating through the parts must restore them to healthy action. Do not confound this with Electric Belts advertised to cure all ills from head to toe. It is for the ONE specific purpose. For circulars giving full information, address Cheever Electric Belt Co, 103 Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

MANHOOD RESTORED.

REMEDY FREE.—A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, &c., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple means of self-cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers. Address, J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., New York.

Allen's Brain Food arrests all involuntary discharges, removes mental despondency and restores wonderful power to the generative organs. $1, 6 for $5. Druggists or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 1st ave., N. Y.
